House Faces Grind Over Budget-Cut Move

Britain to Halt Draft, Reduce Forces by 1962

Will Take Troops Out Of Korea

$785 Million Cut In Defense Move

London, April 4 (AP)—Britain today announced a sweeping revision of her defense program designed to abolish the draft by 1960 and cut the armed forces from 690,000 men to 375,000 within five years.

Described in a government white paper as "the biggest change in military policy ever made in normal times," the new program slices defense costs by 785 million dollars in 1957-58. It scraps further development of supersonic bombers and fighters on the theory that these piloted aircraft will be replaced by guided missiles including some to be furnished by the United States.

Early Withdrawal Seen

Included in the cutbacks was a newly disclosed decision to withdraw Britain's troops from Libya and Korea. Date of the withdrawal was not given, but "fairly soon." The British are believed to have up to 5,000 men in both places.

Britain's revised defense bill for 1957-58 was estimated at 1,420,000,000 pounds ($3,976,000,000).

As outlined a year ago, the program would have cost about 1,700,000,000 pounds ($4,760,000,000).

The revised program is based largely on the supply of guided missiles which Britain will be receiving from the United States.

375,000 Regulars

The new defense program was outlined in an official white paper which said the government aims to stabilize Britain's armed forces at about 375,000 regulars by the end of 1962.

The Defense Ministry said it was planning on the basis of ending the military draft by the end of 1960, less than a year after Prime Minister Macmillan's Conservative government must face a general election if Parliament does not vote it out of office before.

The white paper described the new defense plan as the "biggest change in military policy ever made in normal times."

Nuclear Priority Stressed

It stated: "High priority will continue to be given to the development of British nuclear weapons. Work will go ahead on nuclear propulsion for maritime purposes.

"Close cooperation with the United States on defense research and development, particularly on guided missiles, will be maintained."

It added, however, that Britain will cease work on the development or construction of advanced types of supersonic fighters and bombers.

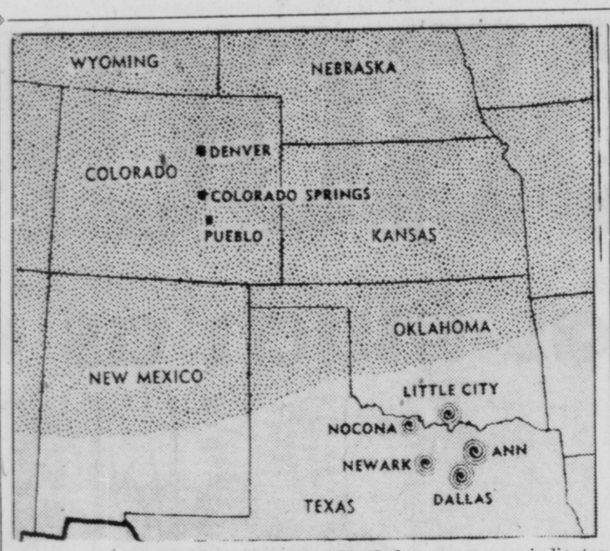

"Fighter aircraft will in due course be replaced by a ground-to-air guided missiles system," the ministry said.

Production Cut

The White paper said the savings this year are being secured by a substantial reduction in the overall strength of British forces and by cutting down production orders. In addition to the withdrawal from Libya and Korea, Britain's European allies have agreed to a cut of 13,000 men in the British force in West Germany this year. A further cut of 13,000 men will be reviewed next year by the NATO members.

The defense cuts have been promised by the Macmillan government ever since it took office last January. They have re-

Wilson Writes Harriman

Asks Doe Permits, No Open Season

Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson of Woodstock today urged Governor Averell Harriman to enact a bill which would provide for a doe season on a limited permit basis in Catskill mountain counties.

Mr. Wilson urged the governor's signature on the Van Wiggeren bill in a communication to Mr. Harriman, and also asked him to veto the Gordon Bill which would permit an open antlerless deer season the last day of the regular season.

Cites Interest

The assemblyman said he urged the governor to sign the Van Wiggeren bill "on behalf of the overwhelming majority of conservationists, sportsmen and rod and gun clubs of Ulster county, the Board of Supervisors of Ulster county and myself."

The controversial Gordon bill, introduced by Assemblyman Janet Hill Gordon, (R) of Chenango county, passed the Senate March 29 with only one dissenting vote, that of Senator E. Ogden Bush, representing Greene, Ulster, Sullivan and Delaware counties.

The Van Wiggeren bill S. 3470, introduced by Senator Walter Van Wiggeren, (R) of Herkimer county, passed the Senate and was approved by the Assembly also on March 29.

Would Allow One Day

The latter bill would allow an open one-day antlerless deer season on the last day of the regular season but taking of doe deer would be on a special permit basis in Putnam, Sullivan and Ulster counties.

Assemblyman Wilson reminded the governor that Ulster county has never had an open doe season "and does not wish to have such a wide open doe season as is provided for in the Gordon bill."

He said failure to enact the Van Wiggeren bill would result in most of the best hunting areas being posted and would defeat the reduction of the size of deer herds, which is the aim of the Conservation Department.

Would Defeat Purpose

"Unless some limitation is provided in the Van Wiggeren bill is had, the landowners and rod and gun clubs threaten to post most of the best hunting areas thereby defeating the aim of the Conservation Department which is to reduce the size of deer herds," the assemblyman said.

Mr. Wilson said residents of Ulster county are also "fearful" because of the county's proximity to New York city.

"If the Gordon bill becomes law, our county will be overrun by a vast number of hunters, all of which will, in addition to killing off vast numbers of deer, create a danger to the many

$25 Million Will Go for Teacher Staffs From Ford

New York, April 4 (AP)—The Ford Foundation announced today it has appropriated 25 million dollars for a "coordinated attempt to meet the serious shortage of qualified faculty members in our colleges and universities."

In announcing the appropriation, officials of the foundation said that up until now there has been no active recruitment of able college students for college teaching. They also said they are concerned with the quality of college teachers, as well as the quantity, to meet enrollments which are expected to double in 15 years.

To Develop Program

The appropriation will be used for extension and development of the National Woodrow Wilson Fellowship program. It will provide graduate fellowships to prospective college teachers at the rate of 1,000 yearly for the next five years.

Individual awards for tuition and living expenses for the first year of graduate study are expected to average $2,200 yearly, and will account for about 11 million dollars of the total appropriation. Another 10 million dollars wil go to universities for aid to graduate students beyond the first year.

Use of Funds

A nationwide recruiting program is expected to cost about $2,800,000, with another $1,000,000 alocated for administration.

Of the total funds appropriated, $200,000 will go to the Assn. of American Universities and its affiliate, The Assn. of

Lions 'Susie Contest' Is Won by New Myers Infant

Susan Myers was not among the more than 2,500 persons attending the second night of the Lions Club's 10th annual exposition at the state armory Wednesday evening but the newly born girl became "the sweetheart" of the show, winning the club's "Susie Contest."

Susan, born Wednesday at 1:23 a. m. to Mr. and Mrs. Spencer E. Myers, of 112 O'Neil street, was sleeping soundly in her nursery crib at Kingston Hospital, unaware that she had become the favorite girl of the Lions Club.

J. Wilson Tinney, first vice president of the Lions Club and general chairman of the exposition, said club members were "very satisfied" with last night's attendance and particularly pleased that Susan had become "the sweetheart" of the club.

Her entrance into the world at the time of the exposition wins for Susan a $25 cash award.

Lions Club members announced a "Susie Contest" in conjunction with the current exposition with the first girl born during the show "named Susie, Susan or Suzanne" to receive the cash award.

Express Fear of Aid Cuts

Census Will Give $6 Million Gain

Albany, N. Y., April 4 (AP)—The decision of a State Senate committee to kill anti-billboard legislation may cost the state 90 million dollars in federal road funds, Public Works Superintendent John W. Johnson said today.

In another development on federal funds, Gov. Harriman has protested a welfare appropriations bill before Congress on the ground it could cut federal aid to New York state by $1,900,000.

While those officials expressed concern about possible reductions in federal aid to the state, Arthur Levitt, state comptroller, estimated local governments will gain more than six million dollars a year in state aid as a result of special census now underway.

Dies in Senate Committee

A bill that would have restricted advertising devices within 500 feet of interstate and controlled-access highways was sponsored by the Public Works Department. The Assembly passed it, 124-19, but it died in the Republican-controlled Senate Finance Committee when the Legislature adjourned Saturday.

Johnson said Republican legislative leaders had been "short-sighted" in the decision to kill the measure.

He said they were aware of a bill before Congress that would cut federal aid for highways from 90 to 85 per cent for states without laws regulating billboard advertising.

Estimates $90 Million

The superintendent said a cut of five per cent in New York's allocation would equal about 90 million dollars.

Gov. Harriman's office made public yesteday the text of a telegram in which he urged the House Appropriations Committee to eliminate restrictions from the bill allocating federal welfare funds.

An aide to the governor said the measure would restrict the amount that could be used for administrative purposes. The aide said that step would mean a reduction of about $1,900,000 in payments to New York state and its local welfare districts.

Census in 30 Counties

The U. S. Census Bureau is making a count in 423 communities in 30 counties of the state.

Chappell's Right To Parsonage Is For Jury to Say

A legal attempt to evict the Rev. S. B. Chappell, pastor of the African Union Methodist Church, Foxhall avenue, from the church's parsonage on Jansen avenue is due to be aired before City Judge Raymond J. Mino in the near future, it was announced today.

A dispossess petition by elders of the church, filed recently, was returnable yesterday before Judge Mino. An answer was filed by the Rev. Mr. Chappell, a jury trial was requested, and a date is to be fixed soon.

Served With Papers

A police report March 15 said a presiding elder of a church unit (Buffalo district) had served eviction papers on the Rev. Mr. Chappell, and he refused to leave.

"It's my church, and I'm the bishop," the pastor said recently. He contends that the congregation on Feb. 24, passed a resolution, "which ordained me the first bishop of the African Union Methodist Church."

A police report last month also noted that the Rev. Chappell complained that two men were making trouble for him and "threatened to knock the church apart."

Officers dispatched on the call said the Rev. M. D. Bert, an elder, had served eviction papers.

Notes Suspension

The Rev. Mr. Bert issued a notice March 16, which said: "This is to certify that the Rev.

GOP Leaders Think Force Applied in Lanza Parole

Albany, N. Y., April 4 (AP)—The Legislature's Republican leaders declared today there was "grave suspicion that powerful factors and forces" influenced the decision to restore convicted extortionist Joseph (Socks) Lanza to parole.

Sen. Walter J. Mahoney and Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck said the parole board commissioner who decided Lanza's case, James R. Stone of Croton-on-Hudson, had "made it clear that he freed Lanza against his own better judgment."

Stone, an appointee of Democratic Gov. Harriman, resigned last week after the governor's investigation commissioner and the Legislature's "watchdog" committee began probing the Lanza incident.

Stone was to testify before the watchdog committee at a closed session in New York city today. The committee also plans to question Phillip J. Hirsch, another Harriman-appointed parole board member. Stone was reported to have substituted for Hirsch at a parole board hearing in February when Lanza's parole-violation case came up for action.

Mahoney and Heck said circumstances surrounding the "mysterious freeing" of Lanza indicate his release "resulted from something more than a simple incident of mistaken judgment by Gov. Harriman's parole commissioner."

They quoted Stone as having said "I recognize Lanza had violated parole rules" and that he believed there was something

GIVES TESTIMONY ON PLANE CRASH—His head swathed in bandages, Abraham Ball, a severely burned survivor of the Rikers Island plane crash last February, testifies before a Civil Aeronautics Board inquiry panel in New York. Ball told the committee that the plane's wings were covered with snow at the time of takeoff despite prolonged de-icing operations. The Miami-bound DC6B plummeted into Rikers Island, which is in New York's East River, moments after taking off, killing 20 of the passengers. (NEA Telephoto)

To Fete Dexter, Huben

Appreciation Dinner Set April 9th

Fifteen years ago at a meeting of news editors of the Ulster-Greene county area, sponsored by Central Hudson Gas and Electric Corporation, a promotional program was instituted for the Ulster-Greene Counties Vacationland Area.

Each year since Harris E. Dexter, former vice-president in charge of commercial relations for Central Hudson, and Edward M. Huben of Central Hudson, have been host to the group at an annual dinner meeting.

Promote Summer Resorts

Since then county publicity committees have been named in each county and town and community organizations formed to promote the summer resort industry throughout the area.

The romantic "land of Rip Van Winkle," has been carried throughout the length and breadth of the country through distribution of millions of folders, newspaper and magazine articles and many have been brought to the area through this publicity.

Services Recognized

Now after 15 years an "appreciation dinner" is being given by the Ulster-Greene county group to Mr. Dexter and Mr. Huben in honor of their services to the area.

An appreciation dinner will be given at Governor Clinton Hotel Tuesday, April 9, at 6:45 p. m. in honor of the 15th anniversary of the formation of the group.

With C-H 30 Years

Harris E. Dexter on February 28, last, after 30 years of service with Central Hudson, retired. He will remain a member of the board of directors of the corporation until the end of his term. For the past 25 years Mr. Dexter has been responsible for the company's commercial relations.

Edward M. Huben of Rosendale has been associated with the resort business through his connection with Central Hudson and with Mr. Dexter has contributed much to the resort and travel business in this area and throughout the state. Through the activities of these two men great recognition has been brought to the Catskill mountain area and the Ulster-Greene Counties Vacationland area. Both these men and several others from the area who have been doing an outstanding job through community service, chambers of commerce and other means will also be recognized at the dinner.

Dinner Committee

Members of the dinner committee are Clyde Gardner of Saugerties, Ira Warren and Fred Hoffman of Kingston and Howard Silberstein of Catskill, co-chairmen, and Thomas McKinney, Frank B. Muller, Robert Browning, Fred Bleezarde, James Martin, Arnold Micholsen, Thomas Bohan, James Simpson, Harry Thorpe, Harry Gordon, D. Harold Bush, William H. Dona-

Engineer Dead, 25 Injured in Train Wreck at Secaucus

Secaucus, N. J., April 4 (AP)—A Pennsylvania passenger train smashed into a row of eight empty mail cars here last night killing the train's engineer and injuring more than 25 passengers.

The dead engineer was identified as Clair E. Cochran, 58, of Iselin. The injured, including two trainmen, were taken to New York hospitals.

The accident occurred at about 11 p. m. shortly after the six-car passenger train emerged from the Hudson river tunnel. The electrically-powered train was bound from New York city to New Brunswick with 156 passengers aboard.

The eight-car "deadhead" was struck by the train and two of its cars derailed.

Second Mishap

Soon after the original accident, the 11:15 p. m. evening Keystone bound from Washington to New York roared past the scene and brushed against one of the derailed mail cars.

Although there were no injuries reported in the second mishap, the Keystone was brought to an emergency stop and its seven coaches towed back to Newark while its one Pullman car continued on to New York.

Five cars of the electric train were towed back to New York with the injured as wrecking

Eight-Hour Session Is Prospect

17 Amendments To Decide Drive

Washington, April 4 (AP)—The House faced the wearing prospect today of 17 roll-call votes to determine whether it wants to make official one of its sharpest budget-cutting drives in years.

The process would consume at least eight hours.

Big Trim at Stake

The votes are scheduled on 17 separate amendments which trimmed $68,647,300 from new appropriations for the Departments of Labor and Welfare and the National Labor Relations Board. The reductions, when added to cuts previously made by the Appropriations Committee and upheld by the House, amounted to $187,422,000 from a total of $2,981,277,581 requested by President Eisenhower.

All the House-instigated reductions, enforced by a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats, were tentative but most of them were imposed by hefty margins on standing votes. If the House stands fast, it will have boosted to almost one billion dollars its total cuts on new appropriations for the year starting July 1.

No Senate Action

The Senate, which frequently restores many House-voted cuts, has not yet acted on any of the appropriation bills.

Sen. Robertson (D.-Va.) said Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey has asked the Senate to restore $8,205,000 of a $22,364,000 cut made by the House in Treasury Department funds.

Humphrey had told an appropriations subcommittee headed by Robertson he was accepting generally the House cuts, but was "reserving for further consideration" House elimination of the more than eight million dollars to replace coast guard aircraft described as antiquated.

Asks Funds Returned

In a letter to Robertson yesterday Humphrey recalled this reservation and said he was asking that these funds be restored. A six-year program for replacing the coast guard planes has been planned.

Humphrey has been one of the strongest advocates of budget-cutting, and his chief assistant, Under Secretary W. Randolph Burgess, carried on the drive yesterday. Burgess told the Senate Finance Committee as "a very personal opinion" that he thought it would be "a sound thing" if President Eisenhower's $71,800,000,000 spending budget were cut by two or three billion dollars.

Eisenhower had just told his news conference that "I don't anticipate any (budget) changes in terms of amounts big enough to, to be, let's say, startling. I am not thinking in terms of two billion dollars for example."

Tax Cut Is Hope

Behind the House drive to cut the money bills was the hope of many members that the reductions might make possible a cut in taxes next year, a congressional year.

As it stood on its eighth and probably final day of House consideration, the labor-welfare bill would allot $2,430,727,581 to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare; $348,893,200 to the Labor Department, $9,-

Rosendale's Lady Mayor Has Busy Time At First Meeting, Taxpayer Is Ejected

Mayor Catherine O'Leary of Rosendale presided at her first village board meeting Wednesday evening and the introductory session proved "a spirited one" when Ulster county's first lady mayor had one taxpayer ejected and later permitted him to return after he apologized.

With unwavering distaff command, Mayor O'Leary indicated at the outset of the meeting that village board meetings "must be held in orderly fashion."

Apologizes, Returns

It was reported that one taxpayer was considered by the lady mayor to be "out of order" when he arose to speak without asking for the floor. She directed the village constable to request him to leave the meeting. Mayor O'Leary later allowed him to return after he apologized.

The mayor told The Freeman today she was withholding the taxpayer's name because he apologized. She described her first village board meeting as "a spirited one."

Mayor O'Leary, a Democrat, elected in a recent election, proposed a slate of appointments at an organizational meeting Monday night only to be met by a Republican proposed slate which was elected.

Same Officers

The slate proposed and elected is the same slate which had been in office prior to the recent election. No vote was taken on the slate proposed by Mayor O'Leary.

The recent election resulted in further furor at last night's meeting when Joseph Reid, a Democrat, requested trustee Harold Schoonmaker to publicly apologize for certain remarks made relative to Reid's actions during the election.

Schoonmaker declared that he had previously made the apology and declined to repeat it.

Approximately 100 persons attended the meeting, Mayor O'Leary said, and a survey of the village line, principal matter of business on the agenda, aroused lively comment.

Arrangements for the survey were handled by former officials, it was reported, and it was decided the matter should be studied in order to determine the cost.

GOLDEN RULE DRIVING

The niceties of correct social behavior sometimes seem a little far fetched. Americans generally exhibit a healthy tendency to snicker at some of the refinements of mannerism prescribed for this or that occasion. That is all the more reason for looking beneath the surface once in awhile to find what the rules are based on.

Little digging is required to discover that, however ridiculous some of the branches and flowers may seem, the rules of social behavior are mostly rooted in consideration for others. There are echoes of the old dictum that one man's liberty to swing his fist ends at his neighbor's nose. And all this gets back eventually to the Golden Rule, which has been stated in one way or another by most of the greatest religious teachers.

Though this doubtless seems like a roundabout way of arriving at a discussion of the conduct of automobile drivers, that is the subject we have in mind. Driving can be pleasant, or it can be frustrating and dangerous. One need not be exceptionally acute to note that the difference boils down pretty much to how considerate drivers are of one another. This is not a pollyanna approach to driving. It is plain common sense.

One of the most heartening experiences on the road—and this is especially true when driving within town or city limits—is to have another driver defer and give one some small advantage that makes things go more smoothly. It works both ways. There are few simple acts that would bring about a greater improvement in social harmony than the application of the Golden Rule to driving. The best place to begin is behind the wheel of your own car.

ANOTHER SPOTLIGHT

Cheers are bound to greet the news that the House Labor Committee will soon join the Senate in probing organized labor's financial affairs.

The committee will devote its energies to examining the way the unions manage their huge and growing welfare funds. These sums, said to exceed 26 billion dollars, represent a reservoir designed to produce great good but capable of being diverted to great evil.

Ordinary misuse of this money would be bad enough. But what the committee must also determine is whether some of it is serving as a treasury for racketeers and other criminals who may have infested key unions.

The signs are alarming that they are fastening a tight grip on parts of the country's economy. Manifestly it would be shocking to learn beyond question that this grasp is being supported by money funneled from the welfare reservoir. A worse distortion of purpose would be hard to imagine.

The House group, like its Senate counterpart, has a tough chore outlined for itself. But it is one that should be seen through to the end, in the interests of the honest, healthy functioning not merely of organized labor but the whole economy.

FLOOD BULWARK

If everything goes according to plan, this will be the first year in which property owners will be able to buy flood insurance backed by the government. An agency has been set up at the direction of Congress. All that remains is for Congress to appropriate the necessary funds.

The new system, once it gets into operation, will be a notable step toward minimizing losses caused by one of the most destructive forces in nature. Each year, floods bring heavy damage, and in some years the losses—not only in property, but also in human lives—reach tragic proportions. It is this that has given rise to the flood insurance program.

Obviously, no program of insurance can avert disastrous floods. Just as obviously, this government program to spread the losses will help greatly to reduce the human misery that follows in the wake of rampaging waters.

The coming of spring means the beginning of the annual race between the weeds and the flowers.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

STAR CHAMBERS

When the President goes 70 or 75 miles an hour in his car where only 50 or 55 is allowed, he violates local regulations and should get a ticket. If the Secret Service officers shoot a cop who tries to put a ticket on a presidential car, the shooter should be held for manslaughter and tried in a court before a jury. Either the law is the law or we live in an anarchy. The President does not enjoy the immunities which benefit a diplomat and his attachments permitting them to break the traffic laws.

The President is a constitutional officer of the American government whose rights, duties, obligations and immunities are specified in Article II of the Constitution and he enjoys no privileges which are not stipulated by law. Congress could not pass a law making the President immune to a ticket for a traffic violation. Such a matter is none of the business of Congress but each local community would have to pass a separate ordinance which they might or might not do, depending upon their judgment or mood. The President would be expected to obey the law, no matter how unpleasant or confining. Besides, what's the hurry?

While thinking of the vagaries and vanities of men, I came across an item from Ohio where a statue authorizes the State Fire Marshal to subpoena and question witnesses under oath and to punish for contempt a witness who refuses to testify. The Fire Marshal may deny a witness representation by counsel during the proceedings. This is bad law and although upheld by the present Supreme Court in a 5 to 4 decision, it is still bad law and some of the judges said so. This issue will probably be brought before the Court many times until it is adjudicated with some proper regard for the rights of an American citizen under the Constitution. Too often, judges think only of the privileges of officials, great and small, but against that Teutonic concept there is bound to be a revulsion of public opinion and the Court will come around to public opinion as it so often does.

Again, we have the case of the "Mad Bomber," who has been declared mad by unanimous decision of all psychiatrists consulted. The judge in the case, John A. Mullen, however, says that he is not mad. How the judge knows whether he is or is not mad is not clear, the jurist not having qualified to give an opinion concerning the workings of the mind, his specialty being the law, with special emphasis upon the law of the State of New York.

Why the judge rejects the unanimous opinion of psychiatrists—city employed—in this case, is his option and will undoubtedly be reviewed by higher courts in due course. Maybe he does not like psychiatrists. Maybe he believes they are as nutty as their patients, a view sometimes held of psychoanalysts. Perhaps he is prejudiced against them because of an untoward personal experience. Who knows?

But it is startling to find a jurist who totally and completely disregards an undisputed medical opinion in a medical matter. It would be as though a layman were to disregard totally and finally a unanimous opinion of the brethren on the Supreme Court which one is sometimes tempted to do considering the quality of some recent appointments. However, if the law is the law, a judge ought to pay some heed to a psychiatrist in determining whether a man should be tried because he is capable of being tried, that is, that he knows the difference between right and wrong. To try an insane person is to make the court ridiculous which is not the purpose either of jurisprudence or of justice.

The "Mad Bomber" appears in a photograph, to the inexpert eye, to be mad. His smile is a smirk; his press interviews are absurd. Perhaps the man is putting on an act, but only a madman would put on such an act. If the "Mad Bomber" is not mad, what is he?

This is a case for doctors, not for lawyers and judges. If the guy is what he seems to be, a hospital, not a courtroom, is definitely indicated. But Judge Mullen has said no, which means that the "Mad Bomber" will have some days in court to prove himself mad.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

TRICHINIASIS OR TRICHINOSIS

Trichiniasis or trichinosis is a disease caused by eating the roundworm Trichinella spiralis in raw or inadequately cooked pork containing the larvae. The food is digested in the stomach or first part of the small intestine and the larvae thus liberated penetrate the lining, mature within three or four days, mate, following which the smaller sized males die. The females then burrow deeply into the wall of the intestine and there discharge their young (living larvae) by the seventh day.

These tiny larvae are carried by the blood stream to various tissues and organs. Only those larvae that reach striped muscle tissue survive and there they eventually cause calcification. Elsewhere in the body they are destroyed. The muscles of the diaphragm, tongue, chest and those between the ribs are especially affected.

Trichiniasis is of world-wide distribution but it is rare or absent in native populations of the tropics, or where swine are fed root vegetables, as in France. About 7 per cent of the adult population in the United States are said to be infected. Many cases do not have any symptoms and are discovered only at post-mortem examination by the presence of small calcifications in the muscles.

The symptoms, severity and course of the disease vary widely according to the number of larvae invading the tissues and the physical condition of the patient. They usually take from seven to 15 days to develop after the infected pork is eaten. The sudden appearance of swelling of the upper eyelids is one of the earliest and most characteristic signs of trichiniasis, appearing about the eleventh day of infection. This may be followed by bloodshot eyes, pain and fear of the light. There may be stomach and intestinal symptoms along with the eye symptoms and a slight fever.

Other symptoms which may appear later include muscle soreness and pain, hives, thirst, profuse sweating, fever, chills, weakness, prostration. Edema (accumulation of fluid) may extend to the abdomen and extremities. Soreness is especially pronounced in the muscles of breathing, speech, chewing and swallowing. Severe shortness of breath may result, sometimes causing death. Fever usually comes off and on, rising to 102° F. or higher, remaining elevated for several days, then falling gradually. As the widely spread larvae outside the muscles are destroyed by an inflammatory reaction in the body, there may be such disturbances as eye and ear disorders, pleurisy, meningitis, and pneumonitis. After about the third month most symptoms will have disappeared although vague muscular pains and fatigue may persist for several months. Permanent disability rarely happens.

Because this is such a common disease and because we may not know we have it but blame the symptoms on other causes, I would like to speak about this condition a little more tomorrow.

All Ready for the Next Customer

Washington News

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington—(NEA)—"If you are going to save money," says President Eisenhower, "you have got to look at programs."

All right, take a look at one of the first guinea pigs in the current congressional economy drive. It's the slum clearance program, known in official lingo as Urban Renewal.

It was first authorized in 1949 but didn't really begin to roll till the Eisenhower administration hit town.

In the 1954 Housing Act, slum clearance was expanded to prevent the spread of slums into good areas, in small towns and big cities.

So today the government, by act of Congress, is committed to making 900 million dollars worth of capital grants to local communities to aid them in urban development. President Eisenhower also has authority to increase this by 100 million dollars, to a round billion, if he deems it necessary.

This is to be an outright giveaway, to cover two-thirds of slum clearance and redevelopment costs. Cities and towns must pay the other third. Uncle Sam gets nothing back.

IT IS ADMITTED this is a nice thing for Uncle Sam to do for the general welfare. The question that arises is: Why isn't it the resonsibility of the local communities to clean up their own slums?

One answer given is that cities and towns can't afford to do it alone.

Taxes on real estate are as high as they can go. Local communities have to get help to provide sanitation and good housing, prevent crime and build highways.

Anyway, of the original 900-million-dollars authorization, 865 million have already been obligated. That leaves only 35 million to take care of unexpected cost increases, new planning and new projects in disaster areas.

The 865 million dollars already obligated are for 445 propects in 270 cities and towns. This makes the average grant about two million dollars for a 500-family project.

But they vary in size from a $20,000 job in Douglas, Ga., to the 40-million-dollar redevelopment program for northwest Washington, D. C.

ONLY ABOUT 10 PER CENT of the 865 million obligated has been spent so far. Here are the cash outlays for five years, in millions of dollars:

	Appropriations	Expenditures
1953	8	7
1954	20	11
1955	39	34
1956	50	14
1957	40	22
Totals	157	88

The prospects are that both appropriations and expenditures will increase. Only one-third of the projects are far enough along now to receive capital grants.

President Eisenhower's January budget message called for an increased capital grant authorization of 250 million for 1958 and another 250 million for 1959.

It has now been proposed to Congress that this be cut to a single authorization of 175 million dollars for 1956. None of this would be spent next year. It is a 1958 bookkeeping economy, to reduce next year.

THE CATCH IS that Congress is already committed to appropriate another 643 or 743 million dollars over the next five or ten years to complete the programs it has already authorized. This can't be sucked back or cut back.

The question is whether to stop here or keep on expanding the program.

According to National Association of Housing and Redevelopment officials, there are now 162 cities in 233 states that are ready to launch new slum-clearance programs. This covers 650 million dollars in grants.

National Planning Assn. has just called for a new 10-year program of metropolitan area development, covering the whole United States. There's no estimate of what this would cost or how it would be paid for.

The whole issue is a striking example of how federal programs, desidable or necessary as they may be, start small and keep on growing.

Edward Shoub, of Athens, was injured in an accident at Marlborough.

April 4, 1947—Parking meter charges here were due to be one cent for each 12 minutes and five cents for an hour.

Realtors reported an increasing demand for new houses in the city.

Mrs. Harry Halverson was elected president of the Atharhacton Club.

Police were notified of damage done to several newly installed parking meter stanchions.

Carved From Mountainside

Fort Montague in Knaresborough, England, a mock ruin of gigantic proportions, was carved out of the solid mountainside by two weavers named Thomas Hill, (father and son) who devoted 28 years of unwearying toil to carve the 4-foot-thick solid rock into mock battlements, ramparts and a giant stairway. (1770-1798) After finishing their labors, the younger Hill was given the facetious title of "Governor of Fort Montague" and was permitted to issue his own worthless paper money which people bought as souvenirs. They were both poor weavers and did their work in the evenings after their regular working hours.

Conservatives' Split Blamed In Texas Democratic Victory

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, April 4 — The story of the Texas election is the story of what happens when conservatives split—a so-called "liberal" wins out. It wasn't a clear-cut battle between Republicans and Democrats as such in the election for United States Senator just held in the Lone Star State. The conservatives gave Rep. Martin Dies, Democrat, more than 275,000 votes, and they gave Thad Hutcheson, Republican, more than 214,000 votes. This combined total of 489,000 conservatives was far in excess of the 340,000 votes cast for Ralph Yarborough, the winner. Searcy Bracewell, Democrat, who supported Ike in the 1956 election, got 31,000 votes that would not have gone to Yarborough.

If it be assumed that some of the Republican votes might have spread among the other 17 Democratic candidates, it still is true that the bulk of the Republican votes cast were from the ranks of conservatives.

Had there been a "run-off" election permitted so that Martin Dies, on the one hand, and Ralph Yarborough on the other could have fought for the Democratic nomination, it seems likely that Yarborough would have lost out.

There was considerable agitation for a "run-off," in which only the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes in the first election among several candidates are pitted against one another in the second contest.

Run-Off Elections

Texas voters are accustomed to "run-off" elections to determine the top two who fight it out for the nomination, and it is most unfortunate that the Democratic party didn't put through the state legislature the bills introduced which sought to bring about that kind of election first, before challenging the Republican party at the polls in the final contest. But one reason, of course, was that many of the supporters of Senator-elect Yarborough thought he had a better chance in an election that split up the Democratic votes, and isolated the Republican conservatives behind their own candidate.

Mr. Yarborough has been up for elective office in Texas on a state-wide basis five times and has lost four times. He ran once for Attorney General and three times for Governor. He is the standard bearer of the so-called "loyalist" faction in Texas politics which is made up largely of the Truman-Stevenson wing of the party.

The Democrats in the North are, of course, crowing over "the great victory of the Democrats over the Republicans" in Texas. Also, the Republicans in the North are arguing that this election was an encouraging step toward a two-party line-up in the South. A few more episodes of this kind and the Republican party will have succeeded in sending to the Senate and the House many exponents of radical philosophy and, in the end, the coalition in Congress of Northern Republicans of the conservative school and conservative Democrats from the South will be broken down, if indeed it isn't largely wiped out.

Partisans naturally want to see their respective parties built up. But, in the struggle over conflicting ideologies nowadays, it is far more important to the future economic welfare of the country for the conservatives to avoid schemes that break down the conservative representation in Congress from the South.

Presidential elections can be fought on a two-party basis in the South, but, until there is a Republican and Democratic parties on state issues, it is sheer folly for the national Republican organization to stimulate the selection of Republican nominees for the Senate and the House in the deep South.

There are a few districts in the South where the perponderance of conservatives is such that putting up a Republican nominee for the House of Representatives becomes a logical means of defeating a Democrat from the radical side. This could also happen in some Senate races in the South but, unless there is a "run-off" primary to eliminate the many candidates who usually enter these contests, the risks to the conservatives of such an election as Texas had this week are obvious. It was the conservatives who defeated themselves this time.

Rayburn Snaps at Eisenhower

Democratic Leader Declares Any Tax Cut Up to Congress

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

Washington, April 4 (AP)—Sam Rayburn, 75-year-old speaker of the House and the most powerful Democrat there, sounds like a man getting impatient with President Eisenhower.

It may be because of Eisenhower's lack of strong leadership in handling his own House Republicans. Twice in a week Rayburn has snapped out rebuffs to statements by the President.

In the House this past week the Democratic leadership and northern Democrats have been fighting for Eisenhower against a coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats bent on chopping the President's 72 billion dollar budget to pieces.

Rayburn Emphatic

Yesterday Eisenhower — asked at his news conference about chances for a tax cut in the future—said he certainly hopes there can be one before the end of his second term but he wouldn't speculate when.

Shortly afterwards Rayburn told reporters: "If there's a tax cut, the Congress will make it, and this is a Democratic Congress."

Last week Rayburn threw cold water on Eisenhower's idea for a Constitutional amendment to spell out procedure for replacing a disabled president with a vice president. Eisenhower called Rayburn and other Congressional leaders to the White House to suggest it.

Very soon afterwards Rayburn, not considered an admirer of Vice President Nixon, told reporters: "I don't think much of it. We've got along for 168 years and I don't think many bad things have happened."

The Republicans in the House began their budget cutting rampage last week and in the midst of it Eisenhower, before taking off for a weekend at Gettysburg, sent two of his aides to see Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana.

Must Bear Down

Halleck, one of the House Republican leaders, later said Eisenhower wanted some selectivity in the budget-cutting. Halleck himself apparently doesn't think Eisenhower has shown much leadership in trying to keep his Republicans in line.

He told reporters Eisenhower "has really got to bear down" when the House later begins considering money for foreign aid and defense.

In the past week the Republican-Southern Democratic coalition put through 17 amendments which trimmed 68 million dollars more than a committee had recommended from Eisenhower's requests for money for the Department of Labor and Welfare and the National Labor Relations Board.

Those cuts are not final. The House votes on them again in roll calls which put the members on record.

Taunts Republicans

The Democratic leaders' fight against these cuts was not the first they have waged for Eisenhower against his own Republicans. One of them, Rep. John E. Fogarty of Rhode Island, taunted the Republicans.

He reminded them that when they were seeking election themselves in last fall's campaign, they were anxious to have their pictures taken with the popular Eisenhower.

"You were not disclaiming his leadership then," Fogarty said. "You were telling people you were part of his team.

"All I'm trying to do is make you live up to the promises made by you and your party in the last campaign . . . when you promised to . . . support President Eisenhower and his program."

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Perhaps some folks wonder how the old Senate House has such a nice copper roof. The mystery is solved in the Kingston Freeman and Journal of Tuesday, Feb. 19, 1924 issue.

It seems that Judge A. T. Clearwater was known to be a collector of early American silver which he presented to the Metropolitan Museum of Art. He also was the president of the old Senate House Association of Kingston for a long time, in which he took a great interest. For a number of years he endeavored to induce the state to replace the old and leaky shingle roof upon the venerable building with a modern copper roof to preserve the building and historical items in it.

He wrote letter after letter, year after year to the superintendent of Public Buildings asking that this be done. Nothing happened.

The story further goes on: One day the superintendent in going over estimates for repairs to various buildings owned by the state said to Governor Alfred E. Smith, a friend of Clearwater's, "Your friend, Judge Clearwater, has been persistent in asking to have a copper roof placed upon the old Senate House at Kingston. What do you think of it?"

"A copper roof," said Governor Smith. "Judge Clearwater wants a copper roof? Give it to him at once, and thank your stars that he didn't ask for a silver roof." That is the way our Senate House got its copper roof back in 1924.

In the Feb. 22, 1924 issue there is mention of the passing of the horse and buggy era.

An advertisement in The Freeman showed an auto body manufactory of John M. Mayer, Mill street up for rent. Mr. Mayer's place was established back in 1860 and it was noted for the workmanship and beauty of its products, be it wagons, sleighs or carriages. In later years he made auto bodies, as well as "The American Lawn Swing." Mr. Mayer retired that year due to advanced age, but no doubt many folks still remember his work.

The Feb. 26, 1924 issue tells about the water tank on one of Jordan's big New Paltz-Kingston auto buses freezing, and the bus being taken to a garage to be thawed out. After the thawing process it was taken out for a trial spin through East Union street and ran fine until it tried to pass under the railroad bridge. Before they knew it they found the bridge was too low for Jordan's big auto bus and the top was smashed on the bus, but no one was injured.

I remember that street well, for when I first got my bicycle we used to love to ride the ups-and-downs under that bridge. If that Jordan bus got clipped no doubt such incidents have happened since, although I do not remember any. Now with high tractor trailers, no doubt, they have to be careful under what bridge they go. I know the street is low there, but I suppose not low enough. Well the railroad has to go straight. I suppose it cannot do an ups-and-downs too like a street, but perhaps the street can be lowered. I know such locations usually have a sign of warning, "Low Bridge," but I suppose many drivers feel, "Oh, I can make it."

Gum Adds New Touch To Easter Baskets

There will be a modern look to many Easter baskets that are being planned to delight youngsters on Easter Sunday morning. Besides the traditional brightly colored eggs and candies, this year's baskets will include colorful glistening packages of their favorite chewing gum. A practical idea, too, as the children can enjoy their gum without getting too full to eat a big Easter dinner. Easter rabbits, take note! This new idea will add to the children's fun, and inexpensively, too.

• BRIDGE

Convention Is Often Misused

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Most bridge players play the Blackwood convention as if the partner of the four no-trump bidder is supposed to become a sort of ventriloquist's dummy and simply show his aces and kings on demand.

In expert bridge this is not the case. Any time the four no-trump bidder follows with five no-trump his partner is privileged to go on to seven if he possesses solidity of suit that his partner cannot know about.

The following hand bid by Martha Hammond and Sue Camp at last year's Wichita Falls tournament illustrates this.

When Mrs. Camp sitting North bid four no-trump she planned to go to six spades if Mrs. Hammond showed her one ace. When Mrs. Hammond showed both missing aces she bid five no-trump with no intention of going on to seven herself but merely to give her partner a chance to go to seven if she held very good trumps.

Mrs. Hammond did hold very good trumps and leaped right to seven spades over her partner's five no-trump.

The grand slam required careful handling since all four trumps turned up in the West hand. Mrs. Hammond won the opening heart lead and trumped a second heart with dummy's seven. She returned to her hand with a low spade and got the bad news about the trumps. Now she could not afford to ruff out the last heart. A club was played to the ace and a club trumped. A spade was played to the ace and another club trumped.

When both opponents followed to this third club lead, dummy's king and jack of clubs both became good. Mrs. Hammond drew trumps and made her grand slam.

Hotel Resident's Call Saves Man, Proprietor Says

Joseph S. Babiarz, operator of the Eichler Hotel, 41 Railroad avenue, said yesterday that timely notice given him by another resident of the hotel was responsible for saving the life of Stanley Cahill, 38, who suffered third degree burns of the right arm and smoke poisoning in a fire early Monday.

Babiarz said that he, and others in the hotel, arrived at the second-floor room of Cahill just in time to save Cahill from serious burns or suffocation. Babiarz said he took Cahill to a window after rescuing him from his burning bed. Both the room and upstairs hallway, he said, were charged with dense smoke.

Assist in Rescue

The hotel proprietor said that John Kenny and Frank Scherch, residents of the hotel, assisted him in the rescue and in checking the fire.

Cahill was reported making satisfactory recovery at Kingston Hospital. Babiarz was also treated for ill effects from the smoke, which, he said, was so heavy that he had difficulty in finding Cahill in the room.

Firemen said the blaze apparently started from a cigarette. Babiarz and the others quenched it with water.

Boy, Slayer of Four, Sobs at Funeral

St. Joseph, Mo., April 4 (AP)—Daniel Woolridge, 14, sobbed uncontrollably when he was brought from jail yesterday for the funeral of his father, his mother, a sister and a brother.

Daniel is charged with shooting them Sunday after he fussed with his parents over going for a ride and about a hunting knife his mother had taken away from him. It was his first show of emotion since he was put in jail Sunday night.

An older brother and an older sister rushed to Daniel and embraced him when officers escorted him into the semi-circle of four caskets containing the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Ossie Woolridge, Paul, 6, and Delores, 11.

The boy is due in juvenile court Friday for a hearing on whether he shall be brought to trial in criminal court.

Chafing Dish Afrikaans Is A Meatless Meal in Itself

EXCELLENT MEATLESS party meal is Chafing Dish Afrikaans made with South African rock lobster tails.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Here's a wonderful meatless party dish that's really one of the best. It's a meal in itself, combining lobster tail meat, canned corn and mushrooms. Perfect for the chafing dish set, too.

Chafing Dish Afrikaans (Serves 6)

Four (4 to 6-ounce) frozen South African rock lobster tails, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon finely minced onion, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 3 cups hot milk, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, ½ cup diced celery, 1 4-ounce can sliced mushrooms, 1 No. 303 (1-pound) can corn.

Boil frozen South African rock lobster tails in salted water three minutes more than their individual weight in ounces. (Boil only 1 minute more if thawed.)

Cut away undershell with kitchen scissors. Remove meat, chill and dice.

Melt butter or margarine, add onion and cook over low heat for 1 minute. Stir in flour, salt and pepper, and when well blended, add hot milk gradually. Continue stirring over low heat until mixture thickens. Beat in prepared mustard. Add canned corn, mushroom slices and celery; stir well.

Add rock lobster meat, heat until bubbling, transfer to chafing dish and keep hot. Serve with tossed green salad, and crusty French bread.

Salad Afrikaans (Serves 6)

Four (4-6-ounce) South African rock lobster tails, 1 tablespoon herb vinegar, 1½ cups diced celery, ½ cup mayonnaise, ¼ cup shredded unblanched almonds, 6 to 8 ripe olives.

Cook South African rock lobster tails. Drain. Remove meat and chill. Dice meat, add vinegar and mix well. Add celery and mayonnaise and mix. Add more mayonnaise, if desired. Serve on bed of lettuce or other greens and garnish with shredded almonds, ripe olives, and radish roses.

Tomorrow's Dinner: Lobster and corn in chafing dish, steamed rice, spring salad bowl, crusty French bread, butter or margarine, fresh or frozen strawberries, vanilla cookies, coffee, tea, milk.

Likes His Cell

Lima, Ohio (AP)—A Lima man was unsuccessful again recently in an attempt to make the city jail his permanent winter home. Arraigned in municipal court on a drunk charge, he scolded Judge Carl M. Blank because "....you only gave me seven days last time when I asked for 30." "Ten days," ordered the judge.

Modena

Modena, April 4—A special speaker will attend the next meeting of the Democratic Club of the town of Plattekill Monday at 8 p. m. at Hasbrouck Memorial hall. All members are urged to attend.

Teachers and students of the Modena school celebrated the advent of spring and approaching Arbor Day, last week by planting nine trees in the school yard.

To bring shade and beautify the school yard, two pine, four maple and three oak trees were planted.

Mrs. Andrew Deyo visited the school and offered trees from the woods on the Deyo property.

The children planned the location for the trees, dug the holes, and provided the fertilizer. The boys of the upper grades, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Katherine Van Vliet, went to the Deyo farm and dug out six trees. Mrs. Deyo and her son, Jan, found an especially nice pine tree for the front yard.

After the expedition, all of the children covered the holes, watered the trees, planted myrtle under them also planted forsythia and spirea and chrysanthemums, which Mrs. Deyo generously contributed.

Meanwhile Mrs. Richard Coy, 89-year-old custodian, planted two trees, a tall maple, and a pine.

A ceremony is planned for Arbor Day. The project has brought increased pride in the school yards, a greater knowledge of trees, conditions for growth,, knowledge of root systems and provides subject matter for arithmetic, social studies, science, language arts and art, according to the teachers of Modena school, Mrs. Katherine Van Vliet and Mrs. Beulah Link.

Mr. and Mrs. DuBois Grimm have returned from a vacation trip to Florida, and a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Paul Hernandez and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Davis of Lloyd and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Juckett of New Paltz, were among visitors of Miss Glennie M. Wager Tuesday.

Word has been received here of the illness of Edward Keeser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keeser of Nuremberg, Germany, formerly of Modena.

No gravy left from that pot roast? Slice the leftover meat very thin and serve with cranberry sauce.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 4 (AP)—The stock market ran into resistance today after two days of advancing prices.

In fairly quiet dealings small gains and losses were recorded with the losses slightly outnumbering the gains in the early afternoon.

Most key stocks showed only fractional changes with rails holding up a little better than the rest of the list.

Aircrafts generally were ahead while motors, rubbers and airlines weakened. Chemicals, mail orders and steels were mixed.

Youngstown Steel advanced and Bethlehem held unchanged despite news the government will attempt a short cut in its suit to block merger of these companies.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down 10 cents at $175.70 with the industrials down 20 cents, rails unchanged and utilities unchanged.

On the American Stock Exchange prices were mixed in an active trade.

Corporate bonds were moderately higher. U. S. government bonds were steady and quiet.

I AM THE WANT AD

By Harry Gwaltney

My MISSION is to serve humanity without regard to creed or position or time or place • I herald the arrival of the new born, I serve them through life and announce their demise • I am the servant of the poor, the commissioner of the rich • With each sunrise and each sunset I go forth with new missions to perform • Each new day new thousands rely upon me to fill their needs and satisfy their wants • I search out all manner of things for all manner of persons • I find the castle for the newlyweds, a home for those grown weary and aged • I find a business for a future giant of industry and a little shop for a widow's livelihood • I alter the course of millions, and many times the future of maid and man is of my determination • I recover the lost pets of weeping children, and restore lost persons to anxious friends • I sing the praise of artisans, proclaim the skill of craftsmen • I find labor for the man of brawn as well as opportunity for trained and active minds • I am the Fabled Dwarfs, Aladdin's Lamp and the Magic Wand of modern times • Millions in trade are consummated through me, yet the value of my service is not to be measured in silver or gold • Even rouges avail themselves of my power and filch from those who trust me • I am an index of trends, a barometer of commerce, a harbinger of coming events • I am a by-word in countless thousands of homes, the first thought in many times of need • My speed of action, the sureness of my success, matches the completeness of my public acceptance • Within my lines are the sad stories and the glad stories of everyday living that goes to make up life • I perform in my own individual way and for me there is no substitute • No other medium, no other method, plan, or scheme can duplicate my service • In multiple, I become the world's greatest market of services and things • I am born of the people and have lived and grown by their insistence and over the protests of those who held my destiny • I have become an institution of service big enough and broad enough to do anything for anybody at anytime—I AM THE WANT AD!

World News in Brief

Says Power Robbed

Washington, April 4 (AP)—Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) said today Congress' 1956 billion dollar cut in foreign aid reduced spending for that purpose only about 200 millions.

Much of the money spent had been carried over from previous years—a procedure Byrd says robs Congress of its power over the purse strings.

Byrd is leading a fight to chop two billions off President Eisenhower's request for $4,400,000,000 to continue the foreign assistance program. He said that unless Congress cuts new money requests drastically there will be no substantial reductions in actual spending in this field.

Order to Stay

Washington, April 4 (AP)—The White House has refused to withdraw an order by President Eisenhower fixing secrecy standards for government information.

Gerald D. Morgan, special counsel to the President, said in letters to two editors, made public today, that the 1953 directive gives "the minimum protection necessary to the defense interests of the nation."

Morgan was replying to a resolution adopted by the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. (APME), which urged rescinding of the order on the ground it is being invoked increasingly to withhold information to which it contended, the public is entitled.

Probe Renews Interest

Washington, April 4 (AP)—For a decade, most labor unions have been required to file annual financial reports with the government. In all that time only about 200 citizens have ever seen them.

An official shroud of secrecy keeps this huge pile of fairly detailed fund data from the eyes of the public and union members.

Recent disclosures by the Senate rackets investigating committee of alleged misuse of large sums of union money have brought renewed interest among members of Congress in the matter of public scrutiny of union affairs.

Disorders Continue

Santiago, Chile, April 4 (AP)—Troops enforced a nervous peace in Chile's capital early today after dispersing bands of anti-inflation demonstrators and looters with machinegun fire.

At least 4 more persons were reported killed and about 500 were rounded up in a new outbreak last night in the capital. The violent disorders have swept Santiago for two days.

A large detachment of troops routed about 150 persons who had holed up atop a small hill in the center of the city. The authorities said this group was a band of looters who had hidden while waiting for nightfall to cover their depredations.

Highest Pipeline

The world's highest pipeline, 14,000 feet in the Bolivian Andes, was built by Bolivians accustomed to working in thin air. Tractors and other equipment used had to have superchargers.

Shooting by Girl Probed by Police

Clinton, N. J., April 4 (AP)—The 15-year-old daughter of noted Attorney Anthony M. Hauck shot and critically wounded a 52-year-old geologist here yesterday, police said.

The exact motive for the shooting was still in doubt.

Police launched an investigation while the girl, released in custody of her parents, was treated for shock.

The victim, Dr. Thomas Stoelting of Salmon, Idaho, is in Hunterdon Medical Center, with a bullet wound in the stomach.

Stoelting, a house guest, was shot in an upstairs bedroom of the Haucks' home after he had retired to sleep early yesterday.

Hauck and his wife said the shooting of Dr. Stoelting was entirely accidental and their daughter, Sandra, had no idea she held a loaded gun.

Hauck said his daughter came upstairs with a .45 caliber revolver and "was fooling around with it, pretending to shoot it without knowing it was loaded when it went off." She had teasingly pointed it at Stoelting, Hauck said.

Hauck helped prosecute Bruno Richard Hauptmann in the Lindbergh kidnaping and is a former member of the New Jersey State Assembly.

Both he and Mrs. Hauck also said Sandra had eavesdropped on a conversation between Hauck and Stoelting before the two men retired for the night, and Sandra apparently thought Stoelting was criticizing her mother. The conversation was about another person, the Haucks said.

Mrs. Hauck said the gun belonged to another house guest who used it for target shooting. She said Sandra found the gun in a bureau drawer and had no idea it was loaded.

BACK IN BUSINESS?—Out of operation during the Suez crisis, the 550-mile pipeline (black line on map) of the Iraq Petroleum Co. may be back in commission soon through permission of the Syrian government. Syria said it may start repairs on three main pumping stations which its army blew up last November at the start of crisis. The line may only operate at half capacity of last year's 24-million-ton output because of the Syrian army's action. One anticipated result is to ease the pressure on U.S. oil companies in rushing tankers to oil-starved European countries.

Canadian Envoy Jumps to Death; Overwork Blamed

Cairo, April 4 (AP) — Herbert Norman, Canadian ambassador to Egypt, killed himself today by jumping from an apartment window.

A U. S. Senate subcommittee once reported that Norman had been a Communist, and this charge recently was revived. Canada repudiated the charge, and declared today that Norman had been persecuted in Washington.

The Canadian statement, issued in Ottawa by Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson, said the ambassador, 48, had suffered a nervous collapse due to overwork and "the feeling of renewed persecution."

Quizzed on Loyalty

Pearson said Norman was depressed "by the resurrection, by one or two persons in Washington, of certain old charges affecting his loyalty." These charges, Pearson asserted, "were disposed of years ago."

Canada had protested the report against Norman made public last month by the U. S. Senate Internal Security subcommittee. In the report, a transcript of a closed committee earlier in March Committee Counsel Robert Morris said there was evidence Norman had been a Communist.

After the Canadian protest, Foreign Secretary Lester B. Pearson told Parliament a 1951 government security check gave Norman a clean bill of health on the Red charges.

Career Diplomat

Pearson said the subcommittee record repeated "rumors, suspicions and slanders heard about for years and rejected by us as unfounded."

A career diplomat, Norman was a son of a missionary to Japan and was reared in the Orient. He was graduated from Victoria College, Toronto, and Trinity College, Cambridge. He received a three-year Rockefeller Foundation Fellowship and took his master's and doctor's degrees at Harvard.

In May 1951 he was named acting chief of Canada's delegation to the United Nations. He served as chief adviser to the Canadian delegation at the Japanese peace treaty conference in San Francisco in September 1951.

Laundryman Accused As Slayer of Wife

New York, April 4 (AP)—Brooklyn police lodged a homicide charge today against a Chinese laundryman accused of killing his wife in a quarrel and dismembering her body.

The prisoner, Yuen Sing Chin, 32, was seized yesterday in suburban White Plains where he was working in a restaurant. He formerly owned a laundry in Brooklyn.

Police in Brooklyn said the laundryman admitted that he struck his wife, Fee Yen Chin, 24, following a quarrel in their Brooklyn apartment last Jan. 25; that she suffered a fatal head injury in falling, and that he cut up the body.

The wife's trunk and limbs, placed in a laundry bag, were found March 12 near the Hutchinson River Parkway in the Bronx. Her head was found four days later in Freeport, on Long Island.

Baby Slayer Insane

Sacramento, Calif., April 4 (AP)—Harrison George Brinan, held for the stomping death of 6-week-old Kathleen Thompson, has been ruled insane and will be confined at Atascadero State Hospital. It took less than 10 minutes for a Superior Court jury to return the insanity verdict yesterday. Dr. Walter Rapaport, head of the State Department of Mental Hygiene and two other psychiatrists, testified the 200-pound Brinan is insane. If Brinan is ever found sane he must stand trial for the slaying of the baby March 6 at a church party.

Court-Martial Is Set For GI Gone 11 Years

Poitiers, France, April 4 (AP)—The U. S. Army today set April 16 as the court-martial date for Pfc. Vito Sala of Brooklyn, who disappeared from the army 11 years ago and fought with the French Foreign Legion in Indochina.

Sala claims he suffered amnesia during World War 2 while serving in Germany. He turned himself over to U. S. authorities in France when he was discharged from the Foreign Legion last year.

He will be tried on the technical charge of "desertion."

Sala told Army authorities he worked in Germany for a time after losing his memory, then joined the Foreign Legion. He said he served in Indochina and Algeria before regaining his memory. He won the French Croix de Guerre in Indochina. He was captured at the siege of Dien Bien Phu and later released.

Seeks Shortcut in Case

New York, April 4 (AP)—The government says it will seek a shortcut via a summary judgment in its suit to block the proposed merger between Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. In a surprise move at a pre-trial hearing yesterday, Allen Dobey, a government attorney, told the court that the Justice Department would ask for the judgment within a month. A summary judgment is a device by which the court rules on a legal question without the prolonged formalities that are usually involved in a lawsuit and trial. It may be invoked when questions of law rather than fact are at issue.

To Question Stone

New York, April 4 (AP)—James R. Stone, who resigned last weekend as a member of the State Parole Board during an investigation of the Joseph (Socks) Lanza parole case, will be questioned here tomorrow at a closed session of of the legislature's "watchdog" committee. The session will be a continuation of the committee's inquiry at Albany last Thursday and Friday. Stone, who was under subpoena, was not questioned at that time. Stone, an appointee of Democratic Gov. Averell Harriman, recently dismissed parole violation charges against Lanza, convicted extortionist.

New Typo Talks In Cincinnati OverWageDispute

Cincinnati, April 4 (AP)—Negotiators try again today to settle a wage issue dispute involving the International Typographical Union and Cincinnati's three daily newspapers.

Negotiations have been under way since the old contract expired Dec. 31 but the printers have continued to work. Last week, however, they voted to ask their international union for a strike sanction if an agreement could not be reached.

A meeting Monday, in which International Representative John J. Pilch participated, ended in a stalemate. It was decided yesterday, however, to meet again today.

There are approximately 600 printers involved on the afternoon Cincinnati Post and Times-Star and the morning Enquirer.

4 Killed, 14 Hurt In German Rail Crash

Kassel, Germany, April 4 (AP)—The U. S. Army's Berlin-to-Frankfurt military train rammed into a German express train today, federal railway officials reported. Four Germans were killed and 14 injured.

The officials said no Americans were hurt.

The German express, running from Kiel on the Baltic sea to Lindau in Bavaria, was waiting at a signal stop when the American train hit it.

A more serious pileup was averted when the German engineer of the military train grabbed the emergency brake just before the collision.

Three cars of the German express were derailed. A heavier impact would have pushed some of the German cars down a 60-foot embankment.

The military train carries armed forces personnel travelling to West Germany for duty or leave.

Bragging Fund Is Passed by Texas Lawmakers

Austin, Tex., April 4 (AP)—They're not so worried about carpetbaggers down here now and the Texas House has passed a bill to make legal use of state funds for bragging.

The proposed constitutional amendment, passed 117-31 by the lower House yesterday, would allow Texas to use state funds to advertise its educational, recreational, industrial and natural advantages to people in other states.

This has been going on for quite some time, however, on a sort of private enterprise basis. Why, hardly anyone doesn't know Texas is the greatest of all states.

Would Use Public Fund

But after the Civil—er, war for the southern confederacy, the state's constitutional writers were concerned over the invasion by Yankee carpetbaggers. So they included a section to ban spending of public funds "for the purpose of bringing immigrants into Texas."

The Texas Senate has passed a similar bill and if the two houses can get together on some minor points, the measure will go to the people for a vote in November, 1958.

But while the ponderous legislative machinery grinds along, motel, hotel, resort owners and chambers of commerce continue to advertise for tourists and new industries.

And there's what might be called word of mouth advertising about the beauty of Texas women, the number of oil wells, and those jackrabbits that would be big game in any other state.

Landmark Is Burned

Suffern, N. Y., April 4 (AP)—The half-century-old, three-story frame home of the late industrialist Otis H. Cutler was partially destroyed today by fire. The 20-room dwelling, set on a 12-acre plot, was a Rockland county showplace shortly after the turn of the century. The home, completely furnished, was occupied from time to time by Cutler's sons, William and Robert. Several community fire companies fought the blaze, of undetermined origin. There were no injuries. Residents of the area said the home cost about $100,000 to build.

'Sinister' Move Denied in Drug Trial of Doctor

London, April 4 (AP)—A medical expert testifying for Dr. John Bodkin Adams told a jury today he could not detect anything "sinister" in the drug injections given the 81-year-old woman Adams is accused of murdering.

Dr. John Bishop Harman, specialist at London's St. Thomas's Hospital, said he had himself administered morphine and heroin to a single patient and declared, "I don't regard it as dangerous to combine the two."

The prosecution's star narcotics expert, Dr. Arthur Douthwaite, condemned the mixture of drugs used by the 58-year-old Adams, who is charged with killing Mrs. Edith Alice Morrell.

She died in November 1950, two years after suffering a stroke.

While Dr. Douthwaite had criticized giving heroin to persons over 70, Dr. Harman said:

"In my opinion there is no reason why heroin should not be given to elderly people."

The defense expert said, "I think she could have survived those doses."

Pressed by the chief prosecutor whether it was "likely" she could have survived, he replied, "yes, I think it likely."

Cause of Fire Sought, Fatal to 4 Children

Columbus, Ohio, April 4 (AP)—Investigators today tried to find the cause of a fire that killed four children at a nearby Jackson township home last night.

They said Mr. and Mrs. Denver Triplett, the parents, were apparently in Columbus when fire destroyed their partly completed home and killed Sandra, 7; Mike, 5; Mark, 19 months, and Sue, 2 months.

Authorities said Triplett, 32, told them he left the house about 9:45 p. m. (EST) to pick up his wife, Virginia, 30, at a drugstore where she works. His wife then drove him to his factory job at the western edge of Columbus, he said.

A neighbor, Mrs. Albert Shoaf, said she saw flames from the window of her home, about a quarter-mile from the Triplett house. Her husband and Lawrence Hofius, another neighbor, investigated. They told police the heat was too intense for them to enter the burning house.

To Support Survey

Atlantic City, N. J., April 4 (AP)—Four states, New York city and Philadelphia have pledged their support to a vast survey of the Delaware river basin. New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware joined the two cities yesterday in backing the Delaware basin survey coordinating committee. The action closed a two-day meeting of the committee which was formed about a month ago by President Eisenhower. Formation of the group was sparked by the 1955 flood which ravaged the river area and took over 100 lives. Included in the survey will be industrial development, agriculture, recreation, pollution, power, possibility of dams, water use, flood control and ground water resources. The study is due to be presented to Congress in 1959. It will be projected 100 years and include a 50-year forecast.

Two Held in Escape

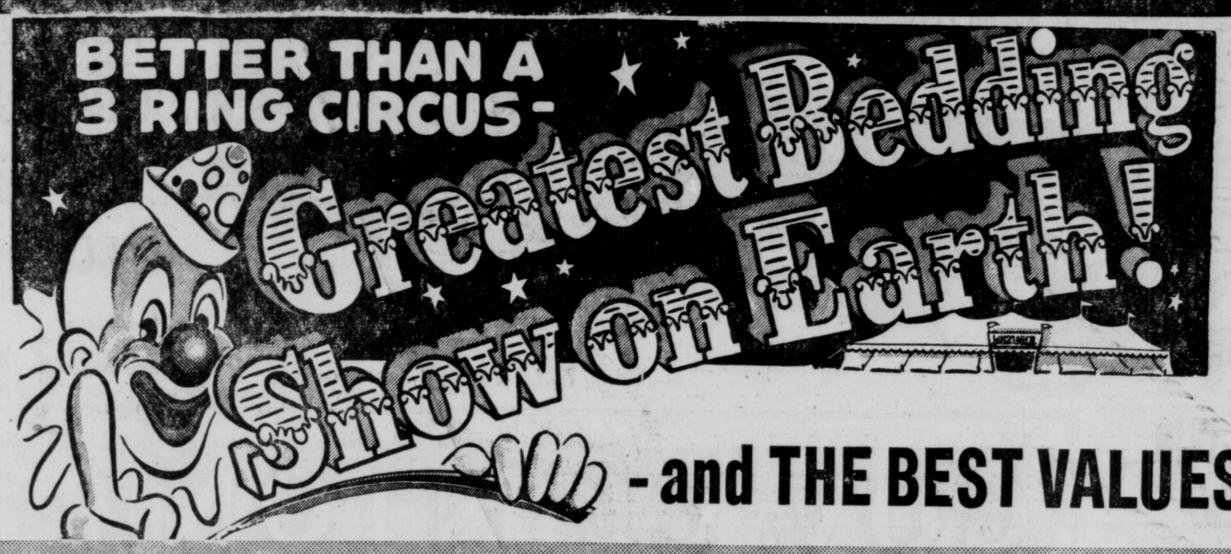

Camden, N. J., April 4 (AP)—A Syracuse, N. Y., man and his 16-year-old girl companion, who tried to shoot their way out of the Camden jail, have been held without bail after pleading innocent to larceny and assault charges. George Murray, 27, and Clara Wall, also of Syracuse, were picked up as vagrants March 17. Police said that as they were being questioned at headquarters here, Murray snatched a gun from a desk drawer and tried to escape with the girl. The pair made their way downstairs in an elevator, where officers ordered them to halt. According to police, Murray tried to fire the gun and was shot and critically wounded. The girl suffered a slight wound. They entered their pleas at a hearing yesterday. Both were charged with larceny, armed robbery, assault and attempted escape.

School Consolidation Explained

Teacher Benefits Are Noted Under Greater School Plan

(Note—This is the twelfth in a series of articles on the proposed Greater Kingston Area Consolidation written by Norman Hammond of Lake Katrine and edited by four others on a committee interested in presenting an explanation about linking rural districts to the city school system.)

Some of the teachers now employed in our rural school districts have served us faithfully and well for many years. Questions are often asked regarding the future of these teachers under consolidation. Will they continue to teach or will they be required to leave this area and look for new jobs elsewhere?

The answer is definite. All qualified teachers now employed by any of the districts which consolidate with Kingston will continue to work for the new district if they so desire.

Move to New Schools

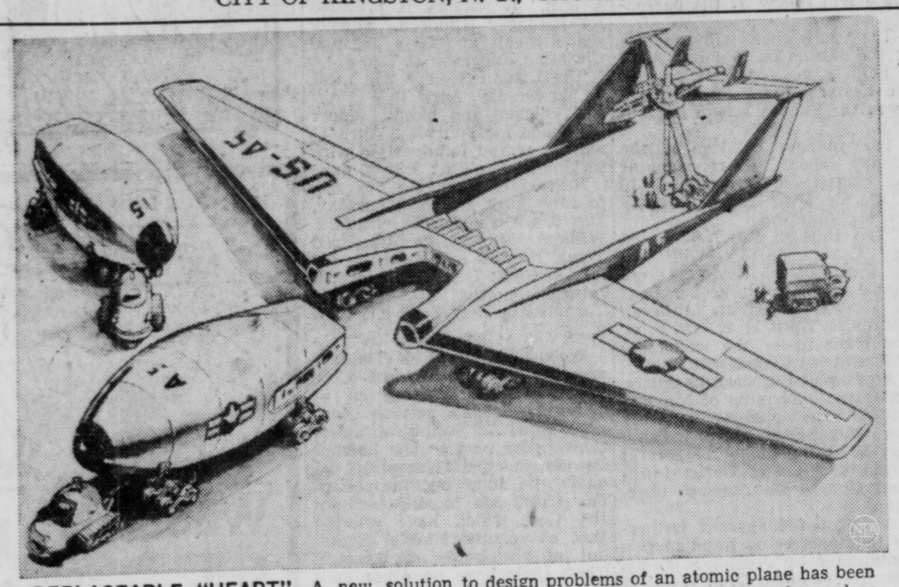

When the existing unsatisfactory schools are closed it will of course become necessary for the teachers to move to the new schools. In most cases these teachers will move to the same schools which their old pupils will attend. In some cases a teacher for personal reasons may request to be transferred to a school in another part of the district. This request would probably be granted, but there is no reason to anticipate any wholesale transferring of teachers among the schools.

The teachers will benefit in many ways from this change. Although the salaries now paid in the rural districts vary from poor to quite good, under consolidation all teachers would be placed on a single salary schedule which would provide a base salary as good as any now paid. Additional benefits such as tenure rights, sick leave, and group hospitalization insurance would be available. Tenure rights, or credit toward them, which already exist would be recognized under consolidation.

Advantages Noted

All of these things plus the advantages of more uniform classes, better equipment, and new buildings should provide a happier and more secure life for our teachers and will enable them to do the best possible job of educating our children.

The next article will discuss the advantages to be gained from having a single transportation system instead of the approximately 30 which now exist.

REPLACEABLE "HEART"—A new solution to design problems of an atomic plane has been suggested by three of America's top scientists. To eliminate contamination dangers, the nuclear power plant would consist of a capsule unit in the front of the ship. It is removable and replaceable as shown in this sketch, originating in Hawthorne, Calif. The crew would be at a point farthest away from the "hot" fuel. Their quarters, a small unit in the tail section, could detach and glide to safety in emergency.

Seaway Job to Cost Almost Twice Original Estimate

Washington, April 4 (AP)—Estimated costs of constructing the St. Lawrence Seaway are nearly double predictions made when the project was launched.

Administrator Lewis G. Castle of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp. reports that U. S. expenditures now are estimated at 133 million dollars and Canada's 285 million for a total 418 million dollars.

He said original estimates were 68 million for the United States and 176 million for Canada.

Castle's comments are contained in testimony he made to the House appropriations subcommittee. The testimony was made public yesterday.

The development corporation is asking Congress to authorize an additional loan of 35 million dollars from the treasury. Castle said tolls to be charged on the U. S. portion of the seaway would amortize the total loan in 50 years.

Unexpected Items

He said the additional funds were needed to meet "unexpected expenditures" which, he said, had changed the cost picture "very materially."

Construction of the seaway began in 1954 after many years of talk and planning. It is scheduled for completion in 1959.

He said the development corporation had anticipated that costs of dredging the north and south channels of Cornwall Island would be paid by the New York State Power Authority and the Ontario hydro-electric commission. The dredging project is estimated at 24 million dollars.

The power agencies objected, Castle said, and 1½ years was spent in discussions. A compromise calls for the development corporation, an its Canadian counterpart, the St. Lawrence Seaway Agency, to pay six million each toward the work.

Bids on the dredging, however, were substantially above the estimate of 24 million dollars. Castle said the corporation had suffered that sort of experience" but "we are halfway through the work and its plans and we have to provide these facilities to meet our agreement . . . with Canada."

Blames Nobody

Chairman Preston (D.-Ga.) of the appropriations committee asked if the mixup on the Cornwall Island dredging did not indicate "improper management." Castle said: "I do not point the finger at anybody. When you try to architect a thing in these days of inflation, you cannot anticipate in 1952 what may be needed in 1956."

Rep. Thomas (D.-Tex.) asked if former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York had anything to do with the decision to increase the cost of the seaway. Maj. Gen. C. G. Holle of the Corps of Engineers said that to his knowledge "Mr. Dewey had nothing to do with it."

Suit Dismissed

Detroit, April 4 (AP)—A stockholders' suit filed against Studebaker-Packard Corp. last October in a move to upset a working agreement with Curtiss-Wright Corp. has been dismissed in Federal Court. Chief Federal Judge Arthur F. Lederle ordered the suit and a proposed amendment complaint dismissed because they did not contain a "short and plain" statement of claims showing the plaintiffs were entitled to relief. The suit was filed by Sol A. Dann, Detroit attorney; John H. Neville, of New York, and Mrs. Louise A. Turek, of Chicago. Named as defendants were three top Studebaker-Packard officers and directors.

'Clermont' Anniversary To Be Observed in June

The 105th anniversary of the historic voyage of Robert Fulton's "Clermont" on the Hudson river will be celebrated by a two-day cruise over the same route.

The Hudson River Day Line, which has operated steamers on the river for more than a century, will run its "Peter Stuyvesant" on a special trip between New York and Albany on June 1 and 2 in honor of the world's first commercially successful steamboat.

Afghans Endorse Plan

Karachi, Pakistan, April 4 (AP)—Afghanistan is the sixth Asian-African nation to endorse President Eisenhower's Middle East doctrine. The Kabul radio said yesterday Premier Sardar Mohammad Daud Khan of Afganistan welcomed the U. S. plan aimed at halting further Communist penetration of the Middle East.

Science Parley Is Scheduled at Albany Saturday

The ninth annual Eastern New York Science Congress will be held at Albany State Teachers College on Saturday.

Approximately 250 junior and senior high school students have registered and will present formal demonstrations of their original work on a science project.

Public Invited

The public is invited to view these experiments from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. During that time judges and representatives from local colleges and industries will select outstanding work in each section.

Climax of the day's activities will be the Awards Assembly at 3:30 p. m. in Paige Hall. Dr. Robert Clarke of Sterling Winthrop Research Institute, will give a domonstration talk, "Crystals in Action." Following his talk, awards will be presented to winners in all divisions. Winners in each section of the Junior Division will be given bars. The top three winners in this division will receive chemistry sets. Winners in the intermediate and senior divisions will receive gold, silver, or bronze medals and the top three winners in the senior division will be given the opportunity of competing in the sixth annual New York State Science Congress at Alfred University on May 17-18. Winners of the state Congress are eligible for a scholarship in one of several colleges or universities within the state.

Sponsored by Teachers

The local Congress is sponsored by the Eastern Section of the Science Teachers Association of New York State in cooperation with the Education Committee of the Eastern New York Section of the American Chemical Society. Business firms provide financial backing. Local colleges will send representatives to the Congress to observe the student demonstration and the American Chemical Society will sponser a Career Booth and will distribute pamphlets describing opportunities for work and study in various areas of science.

August 4 Last Day To Record Old Scrip

Washington, April 4 (AP)—If you have any old government scrip, you'd better make sure it's recorded by Aug. 4. Otherwise, you'll forfeit any right to use it in acquiring public lands.

Scrip is a document or right acquired under law entitling the holder to claim government public lands.

None has been issued for 50 years.

The government doesn't know how much scrip was issued, but it is certain the amount covered more than 67½ million acres and that there is more outstanding than has been recorded.

The interior department today called attention to a 1955 law which specified that within a two-year period owners and claimants of scrip and other evidence of rights entitling individuals to acquire public lands must record their holdings with the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) or forfeit them.

BLM Director Edward Woozley said that thus far only 58 recordings covering 4,865 acres have been completed.

The purpose of recording the scrip is to determine the full extent of the government's "indebtedness," Woozley said, and to expedite the satisfaction of public land claims that are still outstanding.

I'm head over heels in DOVE!

No, darling—DOVE. D—like in delicious.

I told you, sweet. I'm in the tub. Taking a bath. A DOVE bath—my very first.

And what a positively gorgeous time I'm having! It's just as if I'd never really bathed before!

No, dear, it isn't a soap. Soap was never like this! So wickedly creamy. That man on TV said that DOVE is one-quarter cleansing cream—that it creams my skin while I bathe—and now I really believe him.

Just imagine, darling, I'm all over cream. Cream tip to toe. Arms. Legs. All of me!

And clean! I'm simply smothered in suds. Oodles of suds! Oceans of. I don't know what I ever did to deserve DOVE!

And you know how soap leaves your skin so dry? That nasty stretched feeling? Well, DOVE makes me feel all velvet and silk, all soft and smooth. Just the most pampered, most spoiled, girliest girl in the world. Darling, I'm purring.

And did I tell you DOVE is sort of me-shaped? That it's curved to fit my hand, so it doesn't keep slithering away in the tub? Soap is soap, but a bath with DOVE is heaven!

And just think, darling—tomorrow night, I can do it again.

Vols Hear Progress Report on Firehouse

Woodstock, April 4 — The Woodstock Fire Company No. 3, of Lake Hill met at the Lake Hill Gas Station Tuesday night. It was announced that work is progressing on the new firehouse which has been started on Route 212. Last fall the footing and the well were installed and the cement blocks secured. On Saturday sand will be delivered for the mixing of cement, for work to continue.

A discussion on uniforms took place in conjunction with a discussion Monday night at the meeting of Fire Company No. 1, where a decision was made that red shirt, black tie and pants form the uniform for future parades.

The company will send their two representatives, Walter Stone and Robert Bartlett to the fire council meeting on Monday, April 22, at the Woodstock Town Hall.

There was a report from the captain that from Jan. 1, to the present time there have only been four fires in the district, the last being last Saturday behind the old Lake Hill store formerly owned by Fennell Franckling. In that particular fire the garage belonging to Merlin Wilber was saved, although the building was slightly scorched.

It was announced that 15 members of Company No. 3 will be able to take the volunteer firemen's basic training course suggested at the meeting of Woodstock Fire Company No. 1, Monday night.

The company voted in a new member. He is Andy Allerman. Six new applications, to be voted on at the next meeting, have been accepted.

Mrs. Robert Greene Is Girl Scout Chairman

Woodstock, April 4 — At the Girl Scout meeting held on Tuesday at the Woodstock School, Mrs. Robert Greene, Woodstock, was elected neighborhood chairman and Mrs. Arthur Knight, of West Hurley, alternate.

The annual dinner meeting will be held at Williams Lake Hotel on April 30, at 6:30 p. m. Reservations should be made with Mrs. Audrey Gurland not later than April 25.

In order to make Camp Wendy ready for the summer season, work weekends have been planned for fathers, mothers and friends of Girl Scouts. These will be held April 6 and 7, and June 22 and 23. Counsellors, cooks and assistants, etc., are needed at Camp Wendy this summer. Anyone interested in this work should apply at the Girl Scout Office, 292 Fair street, Kingston.

The camp rally will be held on May 4. The new camp director will be there. Families of the Girl Scouts ar invited. Cars will leave Woodstock School at 11 a. m. and will leave Camp Wendy to return home between 2:30 and 3 p. m.

It was announced that when the Girl Scout troops plan to have picnics and overnights at the Van Rijn camp site, that the leaders register with Mrs. Audrey Gurland.

On April 12, at the Jewish Community Center, Wall street, Kingston, there will be a Brownie Work Shop from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Those attending are asked to bring nosebag lunches. If any leaders or anyone wanting to become a leader is interested in receiving training, they are asked to call Mrs. Gurland and arrangements will be made to have the training in Woodstock.

The Woodstock-West Hurley Neighborhood Court of Awards will be held on May 17 at the Woodstock School at 7:30 p. m.

On April 20, at Dietz Stadium in Kingston, the Cerebal Palsy Committee will hold an Easter Parade and the Girl Scouts are invited to color Easter eggs and display them at the stadium.

Pack 34 Scouts Hold Regular Meeting

Woodstock, April 4—The Cub Scouts of Pack 34 welcomed their new cubmaster, John Majoros, Thursday evening, March 28, at their regular pack meeting. Mr. Majoros is taking the place of John Bennett. The members of the Cub Pack would like to thank Mr. Bennett for his time as cubmaster.

The meeting was opened by the flag ceremony with Varick Graver holding the American flag and John Mower the troop flag. Michael Fischer and Greg Carlson were color guards. Richard Parks and Stanley Longyear led the pledge of allegiance which was followed by singing of America led by Barry Jurist. The Club Scout Promise was led by Glenn Lund and Dick Rudisill and the Laws of the Pack led by Thomas Welker. A Cub Scout yell was given by all the scouts for their new cubmaster, Mr. Majoros.

Following the flag ceremony Mr. Majoros introduced Milton Combs who presented the following awards: Bob cat badge—David Jeffrey; Wolf badge—Greg Carlson with a gold and silver arrow, Michael Fischer, John Mower, George Aplustil with a gold and silver arrow; Charles Strickland received a silver arrow on his Wolf badge; Bear badge—Alan Combs, John Chalmers with three silver arrows on his Wolf badge.

Some of the boys received their registration cards for 1957. Robert Gordon, pack committee chairman, stated that registration for Pack 34, committe members and den mothers must be in by April 15. The Boy's Life subscription runs out this month.

It was stated that more backing was needed from the parents to help the boys, den mothers and committee. It is strongly advised that each child should be accompanied by one or both parents at every pack meeting.

Two movies were shown, one on fishing and one a comedy with Abbott and Costello.

"Good Night Cub Scouts" was sung, led by Charles Strickland, concluding the meeting.

Parents of Scouts Are Urged to Show Interest

Woodstock, April 4—It is the fathers and mothers of Scouts who can make or break a good Scouting program, according to the Rev. Harvey I. Todd. The Scoutmaster can do little unless there is interest and cooperation on the part of the parents. The latter are often invited to attend and participate in Scout activities, and it is truly amazing to those who are entrusted with the carrying out of scouting how careless parents are with their part in the operation. Only a small percentage of them show up on these special occasions, Mr. Todd said. Parents seem to forget that the interest they show in the activities of their boys, whether it is scouting, baseball, basketball or what have you is a great lift and encouragement to them. The Scoutmaster of Troop 34, Bill Doran, is about to send out special invitations to the parents of patrol leaders and other junior officers to attend Scout meetings. It would be gratifying to him to have a 100 per cent response to this program.

Dangers of Rubbish Burning Discussed

Woodstock, April 4—At the meeting of Woodstock Fire Company, No. 1, Monday night at the fire hall, George Haythorne, fire chief, issued a warning about burning rubbish, since many of the 29 fires so far since the first of the year were from that cause.

Two members were appointed to the Woodstock Fire Companies Council. They were Joseph Holdridge, Jr., and Birge Simmons.

Mervin Doremus attempted to start a basic training course to include all four companies of the township.

Douglas Franckling announced that the company's official uniform for parades will be red shirts, black ties and pants.

Plans for the parade on July 3, of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen with the Ulster Hose Comany as hosts were discussed.

Birge Simmons announced that the company is planning test runs to make sure that the members are acquainted with the workings of the fire engines. Hs is also preparing a map of the fire district with numbers on poles, so that the members will know the district locations.

It was also announced that the old fire alarm which has been hung in back of the fire house, under the fire siren tower, will be used for emergencies through the efforts of Albert Cashdollar.

Chief Haythorne and Joseph Holdridge Jr., were appointed a committee of two to see the fire commissioners about the present fire siren. Many people do not hear it and it is feared that in the event of a serious fire many would not be aware of it.

To Consolidate

Palm Beach, Fla., April 4 (AP)—Directors of the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute (ACMI) have opened the way to consolidate with the National Federation of Textiles (NFT). Membership of each organization would approve the consolidation before it goes into effect. They will vote on the question tomorrow. Under the plan, the ACMI board of directors would expand from 24 to 27 and the executive committee from 10 to 12 members; a "man made and silk and fiber division" of ACMI would be created and a standing committee would deal with problems related directly to the man-made fiber segment of the industry.

Lenten Preacher For Two Churches

REV. K. R. TERRY

A seven-day Lenten Teaching Mission will open next Sunday at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Stone Ridge and St. John's Episcopal Church in High Falls.

The Rev. David W. Arnold, minister for the two churches, is in charge of the mission.

Morning services will be held at 6:30 a. m. and 10 a. m. at St. Peter's. A 10 a. m. service will also be held at St. John's.

All evening services will begin at 7 p. m. at St. John's. The Rev. Kenneth B. Terry, Order of the Holy Cross, from West Park, will deliver the evening sermons.

Father Arnold said no services will be held Saturday. Hymn singing, questions and answer sessions and refreshments will be held in the parish hall after each evening service. Everyone is invited, Father Arnold said.

Ned Sparks Dies, Famous Sourpuss Of Early Movies

Victorville, Calif., April 4 (AP)—Ned Sparks, whose movie trademark was a frozen scowl and half chewed cigar, died last night of an intestinal block. He was 73.

The Canadian-born comedian was admitted Tuesday night to St. Mary's Hospital of the Desert. He had been in ill health for several months and bedridden about a week.

Since 1948 he had lived with his only daughter, Laura Sparks, in a rented adobe apartment at the guest ranch of Mrs. Kemper Campbell in nearby Apple Valley.

A leader in the strike in 1918 which resulted in the formation of Actor's Equity, Sparks was blackballed on Broadway. He turned to Hollywood where he became typed as a monotone-voiced sourpuss in films such as "The Big Noise," "Nothing but The Truth," "Imitation of Life" and "Gold Diggers of 1933." He retired in 1948.

Besides his daughter he leaves a sister, Gladys Sparkman, and a brother, Ruben Sparkman, both of Ontario.

Remnants Are Combed

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, April 4 (AP)—Searchers combed through the rubbled remnants of hundreds of shanties today follow an explosion in a fireworks warehouse hit by lightning. Five persons were known dead and more than 400 injured. Police feared they would find more bodies in the devastated three-mile-wide area of a shantytown at Duque de Caxias, factory town 15 miles south of Rio. Police arrested the manager of the fireworks factory and two of his workers. They told police only about $100 worth of firecrackers was stored in the building, but police said the force of the blast indicated there were more.

Gore Vidal, author of the Broadway hit comedy, "Visit to a Small Planet," was born at the United States Military Academy in 1925. Despite this army beginning, he was first mate on a Navy transport in World War 2.

To Build Big Center

Massena, N. Y., April 4 (AP)—A multi-million-dollar shopping center is planned for this St. Lawrence Seaway and power center. Stanley J. Harte of New York city announced yesterday that 7 to 10 million dollars would be spent on the center, on land east of the village. The site is in the area where Reynolds Metals Co. and General Motors Corp. plan to construct plants. Harte, president of Harte-Haven Inc., said the Bowery Savings Bank of New York had assured his firm of 1½ million dollars to finance the first phase of construction.

Real Angler

North Bay, Ont. (AP)—It's not everybody who can catch a fish as long as himself. Tommy Haight, 5, pulled a 33½-inch lake trout from Trout Lake near here, hauling the 13-pound catch through an ice hole.

Letters to The Editor

Letters to The Editor must bear the name of the writer. Communications must be limited to 300 words free of libel and personal attacks upon individuals as such. Only original communications addressed to The Freeman will be printed.

Editor, The Freeman:

We the officers and members of the Association of Grand Jurors of Ulster County, wish to express through the local press our full appreciation and gratitude to the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Ulster County.

For the noteworthy foresight and understanding by voting unanimous in favor of a courtesy parking plan for all jurors at the court house parking lot while in session.

This program will lessen the tension of the jurors and is of most paramount importance to all concerned, at the time of deliberations and listening to testimony of witnesses that appear in the jury room.

Jurors are engaged in public service which carries great responsibility for both defendant and plaintiff, in all cases.

Your kind cooperation and loyal support will long be remembered.

With my personal regards to all, I remain

Very truly yours,
THOMAS J. MURPHY,
President, Association of Grand Jurors of Ulster Co.

New Paltz Area Methodist Notes

Passion Sunday Service

This Sunday is called Passion Sunday in the calendar of the Christian year. It will be observed at the two morning worship services of New Paltz Methodist Church. Kenneth Davis, local preacher, will be conducting the 8:30 a. m., service and will be preaching a sermon entitled, "A Jerusalen or a Bethany." Mrs. William Schmalkuche Jr., is organist for these early morning worship services. James Bates is in charge of ushering.

At 11 a. m. the Rev. Willet Porter will conduct the service and preach on "The Christ of the Cross." The junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. R. Francis HasBrouck will sing as will the senior choir, with Mrs. Eugene Trautwein at the organ. A nursery will be maintained for the convenience of parents attending the service.

Lloyd and Plutarch

Regular services of worship will be held Sunday in the Lloyd and Plutarch Methodist Churches. These services at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m., respectively, will be conducted by the Rev. Willett Porter, pastor, who will preach a sermon entitled, "The Christ of the Cross." He will be assisted in these services by Peter Jacobs, who has just recently been recommended for his local preacher's license. George Meyer is organist of both churches.

Film Service Slated

At the fifth in the current series of Sunday evening Lenten film services at 7:30 p. m. in the Methodist Church, the film "Fire Upon the Earth" will be shown.

This film portrays the history of the Christian church from the Protestant viewpoint. It accomplishes the miracle of condensing 20 centuries of church history into 26 minutes by combining realistic art in full color with incisive narration. Dramatic incidents which with actors and dialogue would require many minutes are effectively presented in a matter of seconds. Among the events portrayed are Pentecost; the conversion and work of Paul; Constantine's conversion; the Crusades; the work of Martin Luther, John Calvin, and John Knox in the Roformation; the story of John Wesley; and the development of Protestantism in America.

Church Board Meets

The official board of New Paltz Methodist Church, composed of stewards, trustees, church and organization officers, will meet Monday at 7:45 p. m., in the parsonage, 3 Grove street.

Confirmation Class Trip

The pastor's church membership training class of the Methodist Church will meet at the church Saturday at 9:30 prior to travelling to Poughkeepsie to visit houses of worship. The itinerary will include visits to St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, Temple Emanuel, the Russian Orthodox Church, First Presbyterian Church, Trinity Methodist Church, and Christ Episcopal Church. Members of the class are reminded to bring lunch.

Trustees to Be Elected

Announcement is made by Lorin E. Osterhoudt, secretary of the board of trustees of Lloyd Methodist Church that at the Ladies' Aid meeting Wednesday, April 10, a regular election of trustees will be held. Polls will be open from 8 until 9:30 p. m.

Youth Rally

A subdistrict MYF rally is being held Sunday in Walden Methodist Church. Cars of young people from New Paltz, Lloyd and Plutarch will leave New Paltz Church 2:15 p. m. and will return by 6 p. m. Kenneth H. Davis is advisor to the local Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, April 4 (AP)—The cash position of the treasury April 1, 1957: Balance, $7,239,050,907.10; deposits fiscal year July 1, $57,555,807,354.08; withdrawals fiscal year, $58,749,697,416.43; total debt, (x) $275,043,816,066.70; gold assets, $22,305,730,534.22; (x) includes $450,577,375.96 debt not subject to statutory limit.

UNIVERSITY STUDENT ELECTED ALDERMAN—Pointing to hole worn in sole of shoe as result of his campaign canvassing, Charles Marshall, 26, Northwestern University graduate student, grins at Evanston, Ill., April 3 after his election as alderman. He said he ran for the municipal post to gather material for a thesis he is writing for a master's degree and to pep up interest in the political race. He upset Fred R. Thomas, a city councilman for 16 years, 972-869 votes. (AP Wirephoto)

Weekly Food Review

(By The Associated Press)

The combination of good fishing weather and the Lenten season will result in the featuring of fish as a bargain buy in many of the country's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this week.

Heavier than usual hauls by fishing ships resulted in cold storage stocks of 159 million pounds of seafood at the latest Agriculture Department count compared with 157 Million pounds a year earlier. As a result, cod fillets and steaks, haddock fillets and "sticks," swordfish, shad, flounder and ocean perch will be featured in the stores.

Beef Again Featured

Various cuts of beef again will be spotlighted, however, reflecting an American Meat Institute estimate that supplies are running about 4 per cent above 1956. The AMI notes, however, that meat production as a whole is likely to be 2 to 3 per cent below last year. Coupled with an increase in population, this means consumers will have an average of six to seven pounds less meat this year.

Marketings of hogs are running 15 to 17 per cent less than a year ago, the institute says, and sheep and lamb numbers also are down slightly.

Eggs Are Cheaper

Veal, normally more abundant in the late summer and early fall, is running against the season now with numerous specials advertised. These include veal shoulder, chops, cutlet and breast of veal.

Eggs are reported 2 to 3 cents a pound cheaper in some areas this week.

Good growing weather on the West Coast has resulted in bargain prices in many areas, too, for asparagus. California shipments of the tasty green shoots are reported twice as heavy as a year ago.

Other vegetables rated as good buys by produce men include western broccoli, onions, escarole, chicory, new cabbage, yellow sweet corn and new potatoes from southern fields. Carrots are said to be somewhat good buy, while Florida beans are cheaper.

Other Good Buys

Lettuce; cauliflower, peppers and the remnants of last fall's storage cabbage are only moderate in price. Tomatoes, aided by plenty of rain in Florida, are getting cheaper and should soon be plentiful at attractive prices.

California navel oranges, lemons and Florida temple and valencia oranges all are reported to be good fruit buys. Moderate buys can be had among emporer grapes, apples kept in controlled atmosphere storage, tangerines, strawberries and est Coast pears.

Cuban pineapples also are figured as moderate buys, while grapes, melons, plums and pears from South America are mostly in the luxury class.

Realistic Toy

Peoria, Ill. (AP)—Tommy Jones' mother suspected that the cops and robbers pistol he was playing with was real. Mrs. John Jones looked it over and found her suspicions were well founded. It was a loaded .32 caliber automatic. He told Patrolmen Jack Beecher and John Roake that he found it in a rose bush in his back yard.

Jewish Welfare Fund to Report Progress Tonight

The United Jewish Welfare Fund of Kingston will hold its first weekly report meeting tonight at the Jewish Community Center at 8 o'clock. Workers on the initial gifts and general solicitations are to present their first reports on pledges and collections for the 1957 campaign. Unofficial tallies from initial gifts and the other divisions continue to indicate more than 50 per cent additional funds will be raised in this year's campaign.

Urges Same Pace

Chairman Herman G. Rafflowsky stressed the importance of maintaining this accelerated pace at last Tuesday nights United Jewish Welfare Funds Campaign cabinet meeting.

Herman J. Eaton, local insurance man, is chairman of the intermediate gifts for the JCC drive.

The National campaign hopes a minimum of 125,000 Jews from Hungary, Egypt, Eastern Europe and North Africa will find new homes this year and American Jewry, which has already undertaken to assist 100,000 Jewish refugees this year, must make a "sizeable upward revision" in planned aid during the months ahead, Charles Jordan director-general of the Joint Distribution Committee, said today. Mr. Jordan, who is responsible for JDC operations overseas, said that beside the 100,000 whom the Israel Government will accept this year, 25,000 more Jewish refugees will seek haven in the United States, Canada, Brazil and other hospitable countries. He also praised the "outstanding humanitarianism" displayed toward refugees by the French, Italian and Greek governments.

Workers Needed

More than 2,000 Jewish refugees are being resettled in France and a lesser number in Italy, while Greece has been offering temporary haven for Egyptian exiles heading for Israel. He estimated that 14,500 Jews have left Egypt and 17,000 Jews fled Hungary. Some 12,000 of the Hungarian Jews, he said, have already found refuge in Israel, United States, Canada and other countries.

Additional workers and solicitors are needed for the 1957 campaign. Volunteers are urged to contact the division heads and all who can attend this evening's meeting are invited to 265 Wall street.

Candidates Can't Agree

Port au Prince, Haiti, April 4 (AP)—Haiti's nine presidential candidates today could not agree whether any or all of them would govern the Negro Caribbean Republic until national elections April 28 tap one of them. The army meanwhile held firm control following the ouster of Franck Syvain, third provisional president in four months. Brig. Gen. L. M. Cantave, chief of staff, proclaimed the army's neutrality in the political squabble and left it up to the candidates to agree on a fourth provisional government.

Approves School Grant

Washington, April 4 (AP) — A House Education Subcommittee today approved a five-year, two-billion-dollar program of federal grants to the states to help build schools. The measure, approved 6-1 by the subcommittee, now goes to the full committee, scheduled to meet next Thursday. The measure as it emerged is a compromise between the Eisenhower administration proposal for a four-year, $1,300,000,000 program and a rival Democratic measure calling for a six-year $3,600,000,000 plan of aid.

MAKING FOUR BARGES FROM TWO—Two cattle barges will become four regular deck barges when dismantling operations now under way in the Rondout creek are completed. The barges, recently acquired by A. S. Wikstrom, a Skaneateles contractor, are docked in the creek just west of the Hiltebrant boatyard. The wooden cattle pens are being removed by employes of the contractor, and the other work is expected to be completed by them. The firm recently completed an arterial route project along the Albany waterfront.

Teachers Hear About Plans For Proposed Junior High

A meeting of all staff members of the Kingston school system was held Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the Kingston high school auditorium for the second of a series of "information" meetings on the proposed 1,000 pupil junior high school. There were approximately 350 present.

The purpose of the meeting was to inform the staff members of the school system in regard to the proposed plans for new school building at Dietz Stadium.

Board Members Attend

Attending the meeting for the board of education was Robert Herzog, president of the board, and Mrs. Vincent G. Connelly.

The program was preceded by the showing of a series of slides of the existing junior high school facilities. These were shown by Warren Russell, director of Audio-visual education.

Dr. Earl Soper, superintendent of schools, moderated the meeting.

President Herzog spoke to the staff members about the location of the school and the financial aspects of its construction.

Discuss Topics

Mrs. Connelly spoke of the educational plan, pointing out the number of class rooms and special facilities offered by such a building.

Dr. Soper explained the need in terms of current enrollment problems and Assistant Superintendent of Schools Robert S. Macdonald spoke in regard to the legal aspects of the building including the requirements for registration and voting.

Voting Schedule

Eligible voters will have an opportunity to vote at a referendum on May 7 on issuance of bonds in the amount of $2,667,500 for a new junior high school building for 1,000 students. In order to vote at the referendum a voter must be registered. Those who were registered at the last general election need not again register but any person who was not registered at that time, or anyone who has since become of legal age, may register this week through Saturday, April 6, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. at municipal auditorium and again next week from April 8 through April 13.

The vote on Tuesday, May 7, will be conducted at nine schools in the city. Voters of Wards 1 and 10 will vote at No. 8 school; Ward 2 at School No. 6; Ward 3 at School No. 5; Wards 4 and 5 at School No. 4; Ward 6 at School No. 3; Wards 7 and 8 at School No. 2; Ward 9 at M.J.M. School; Wards 11 and 12 at George Washington School and Ward 12 at Firehouse on Hurley avenue.

Questions Answered

A question and answer period followed the discussion period.

The next meeting to which the general public is invited will be held at the George Washington School on Tuesday evening, April 9, at 8 o'clock.

The job of copying the 16,000 names from the 1956 General Election registration rolls is now in progress, and those names together with the additional names added to the register will constitute the voting roll at the referendum on May 7.

Eases Cyprus Rules

Nicosia, Cyprus, April 4 (AP)—The governor of Cyrus today announced relaxation of some emergency regulations, including lifting of the mandatory death penalty for carrying arms. A government statement said the intention was to create conditions favorable to a peaceful settlement with Greek Cypriots. Nicos Krandiotis, the Greek Orthodox Bishop of Kitium who acted for Archbishop Makarios when the church leader was exiled a year ago, also was ordered released from house detention after seven months.

Meters Return $4,050

A total of $4,050 was collected from the city's parking meters in March, the city treasurer's office reported today. This was $400 more than the February total.

GROWING ARMY — An army of 2,375,000 federal employes is 300,000 federal employes too many, says Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC), who will sponsor a bill to lop that many off. The Senate Civil Service Committee chairman says it would save a billion dollars a year without hurting essential services or firing career employes. Newschart compares growth of federal employe army since prewar days.

Wilson Writes

hunters afield and to the residents of the area.

Goes With Department

"It is my understanding that your advisors in the Conservation Department are in agreement with myself and urge the signing of the Van Wiggeren bill. I respectfully request that you give the bill executive approval."

Wawarsing Sportsmen's Association, Ellenville Chapter of the Isaac Walton League, Lake Katrine Rod and Gun Club, Saugerties Fish and Game Club and others not reported participated in a last ditch game campaign last week to flood Governor Harriman with telegrams seeking veto of the Gordon bill and his signature on the Van Wiggeren bill, it was reported.

Had Long Debate

Assemblyman Wilson lost a long and heated debate in the Assembly last week when the Gordon bill was passed by a roll call vote of 85 to 52.

It was reported last week a telegram was received by Mr. Wilson from Carlton B. King, president of the Ulster County Federated Sportsmen's Club, praising the local assemblyman for his fight against an anterless deer season in Ulster county.

Mr. King, a member of the Saugerties Fish and Game Club which has spearheaded the drive against an anterless deer season in the county, does not endorse the views of the Federation's official stand in the anterless deer controversy, it was reported.

Chappell's Right

S. B. Chappell, former pastor of St. Mark's AME Church, of Foxhall avenue (that was the church's former name has been suspended from all official duties of said church, and of the African Methodist connection and has no legal right to officiate in official capacity of any organized religious body."

Trouble, which started on a Friday last month, continued to the following Sunday, and police then noted, that the Rev. Mr. Chappell, who refused to leave the church, was "preaching from the pulpil" with an iron pipe 1¼-inch by two feet, beside the pulpit." The pipe was taken to police headquarters.

Attorney James J. Abernethy appeared in city court for the elders or trustees bringing the eviction petition, and Attorney Joseph Avis represented the Rev. Chappell.

A recent church notice in which the Rev. Chappell notes that he is "chief pastor," announced services to be held in the church next Sunday.

Rubbish Fire Checked

Firemen checked a fire in rubbish in an area between a basement and kitchen floor at 108 Gage street this morning. Central station and Wicks Engine Company responded to a call at 10:14 a. m. The fire was confined to the point where it originated under flooring in the apartment of Mrs. Pauline Thomas, on the first floor of the two-family house. A call at 10:35 p. m., yesterday was for a grass fire off Manor avenue.

House Faces

384,700 to the National Labor Relations Board, $1,295,000 to the National Mediation Board, $3,550,000 to the Mediation and Conciliation Service, and $5,000 to the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin.

Two Major Cuts

Major cuts were in funds for the Labor and Welfare Departments.

The House chopped $15,473,100 from Labor Department allotments in addition to $20,311,700 recommended by the Appropriations Committee, and slashed $53,109,000 from Welfare Department funds in addition to $98,278,000 lopped off by the committee.

Most of the House-imposed cuts were designed to keep 1958 appropriations at 1957 levels.

Behind the move to force roll-call votes putting every member on the record on the reductions was the belief of many Democrats that some of the cuts went too far and would react to the detriment of Republicans who support them.

Biggest single reduction was elimination of 50 million dollars recommended by the Appropriations Committee for federal aid to municipalities for construction of sewage disposal plants. Congress appropriated that amount for the current year as the first installment on an authorized 10-year 500 million dollar program.

King Haakon was 33 years old when he was placed on the Norwegian throne in 1905. He demanded an election to see if the public approved his enthronement, and he has been reigning ever since.

"phony" about Lanza's job as a clerk in a hardware store near the New York city hall.

They said Stone had asserted, "I think it is a front." The statement continued:

"A front for what? the obvious implication was that he meant a front for some sub rosa or parole-violating activity or behavior."

Deal With Facts

Mahoney and Heck said three facts in the Lanza case provided sufficient justification for returning him to jail. These, they said, were:

"1. Mr. Stone's admission that Lanza was guilty of parole violation and Mr. Stone's belief that Lanza's 'job' as a hardware store clerk was phony and a 'front' for something else.

"2. The fact that the woman Lanza was consorting with, a paroled jewel thief known as 'Madame Ladyfingers,' was ordered returned to prison as a parole violator the day after Lanza was freed.

"3. The fact that the subordinate parole officer in charge of the Lanza case had recommended that he be recommitted to prison for violation of parole."

Heck and Mahoney asserted that the public was entitled to detailed information "as to whether it was by chance or a designed coincidence" that Stone was available the day of Lanza's hearing to offer to sit in for Hirsch and whether either of them knew the Lanza case was to be heard that day.

Public Should Know

They maintained that it was "very much in the public interest" that Stone and Hirsch be questioned under oath as to whether, during that period, "they engaged in conversations, directly or indirectly, with any political figures or any member of the state or New York city administrations or of the Legislature, regardless of how casual any such conversations may have been."

They asserted also that it should be determined how many parole violation cases heard by Stone and Hirsch, as well as other members of the board, resulted in recommitment to prison or in restoration to parole.

Urge Full Check

Mahoney and Heck said the Harriman Administration's "hasty dismissal" of Stone, who had been employed by the board for 20 years before becoming a commissioner, plus Stone's "meek acceptance of his dismissal . . . and his complete failure to offer any plausible explanation" for his decision in freeing Lanza provoked "a grave suspicion that powerful factors and forces figured in the amazing decision to free Lanza again."

They said the "watchdog" unit—the join legislative committee on government operations—should pursue its inquiry "until it has been determined exactly what considerations figured in the Lanza case."

Why We Say--

A SOLDIER: Originally a bachelor was a soldier who couldn't afford to lead a group into battle . . . The word meant a person of inferior rank. For this latter reason, the name was applied to unmarried people because it was thought that they were inferior socially.

Britain to Halt

portedly been the cause of sharp differences between cabinet ministers and military chieftains.

The cuts are expected to have an important bearing on the budget which Chancellor of the Exchequer Peter Thorneycroft is to present to the nation next Tuesday.

Tax Relief Sought

The government has been under pressure to introduce tax concessions to relieve the soaring cost of living.

Tax relief may also restore some of the popularity which the government has lost to the Labor party, as shown in recent special parliamentary elections.

Nasser Won't Budge

Washington, April 4 (AP) — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles are reported to have run into a stone wall of opposition in their efforts to persuade Egyptian President Nasser to revise his proposed plan for operation of the Suez Canal. Word circulating in official and diplomatic quarters here is that Nasser has turned down every major point of change suggested by the United States. The U. S. proposals were aimed at winning greater protection for the shipping of nations which are largely dependent on use of the strategic waterway.

Two Killed, 89 Hurt as Twister Hits Sanatorium

Jackson, Miss., April 4 (AP)—Tornadoes and rainstorms, including a twister which hit a sanatorium for tuberculars, killed two persons in Mississippi early today. Up to 89 were injured.

Most of the injured—50 to 75—were patients in the Negro infirmary at the state sanatorium for tuberculars in south central Mississippi. Luckily, no one was killed there.

Blown Out of Bus

Killed were:

Louisa Jones, 62, one of 15 people seeking to flee a tornado who took refuge in a school bus five miles west of Louin in south central Mississippi. She was blown out of the bus and killed and nine others in the bus were hurt when the vehicle was blown off the road.

Leland Newsom, about 30, New Hebron, whose body was found at about 5 a. m. in his car which plunged into flood waters which gushed across a country road near that south central Mississippi town.

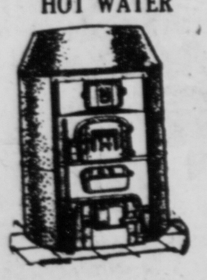

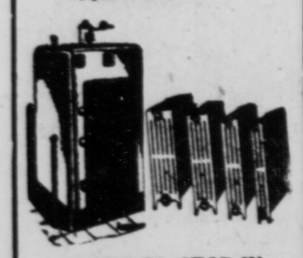

The other injured were three occupants of employes' homes on the Marathon and Linden plantations, raked by a tornado last night. Deputy Sheriff L. G. Vandevender said about 15 homes were blown away and four persons slightly hurt by a tornado which struck the Delta plantation in northwest Mississippi about 7:30 p. m. last night.

Chews 50-Foot Path

The tornado which blew the bus off the road near Louin chewed a path 50 feet wide. The 15 Negroes—five adults and 10 children—had run first to the farm home of J. W. Denson, then abandoned that in favor of the bus. The nine injured were taken to Charity Hospital at Laurel where attendants said Fletcher Atwood, 10, was in serious condition.

In extreme northeast Mississippi, a tornado that continued on into Tennessee heavily damaged a church, cemetery and three houses and blocked roads with uprooted trees and debris. No injuries were reported.

Coach House Show Attracts Capacity Audience at Wiltwyck

The annual fashion show sponsored by Coach House Players was held Wednesday at the Wiltwyck Country Club and the attendance filled the club to capacity.

Spring and summer fashions for sports, luncheon dates and evening along with original hat designs of Milan straw, shantung and chiffon were just a few of the items shown that drew a warm response from those attending.

A Coach House "first" was the exhibition of sports cars and sport sedans, skillfully tied in with fashions of today.

Arrangements for the cars were made expressly for Coach House Players by Aleksander Narel of Halcyon Park. Cars were shown through the courtesy of Latham Motors, Highland.

Mrs. Thomas Latham personlly drove a British Triumph to the show to display it with the French Renault Dauphine.

Gown is Lauded

Another highlight of the show was a chiffon gown and parasol designed and created for "Miss Kingston" by Marion Clarke. Miss Lois Middleton, who holds the coveted title, will wear the gown during the New State Finals for the "Miss America" contest which is scheduled to be held Saturday, April 6 in Schenectady.

Miss Doris Parslow, who modeled for the Cricket Shop, is also the current Page One Queen of the Kingston Newspaper Guild. Miss Parslow will crown a new queen at the Guild's annual ball scheduled for May 4.

Miss Carolyn Goble, harpist, provided a beautiful background of music for the fashion show. She was commended for her performance by those attending.

A fitting finale for the event was the modeling of a full length mink coat worn by Miss Kingston.

Mrs. Helen Davenport of Coach House Players was the commentator.

Good Taste Today

By EMILY POST

(Author of Etiquette, Children Are People, etc.)

THEY PREFER A HOTEL

The following letter is from the mother of a bridegroom: "My son is going to be married in another city very shortly. The bride has invited my husband and me to stay at her parent's house. I was never much for staying in anyone else's house as I like to be free to do as I please. Would it be rude not to accept her invitation and say that we will go to the hotel?"

If you explain that you realize how overbusy their house is going to be at this especial time, I'm sure they will think you are very understanding in going to a hotel and certainly not consider you rude.

Taking One's Leave

Dear Mrs. Post: My employer's wife has invited me to dinner at their house. Please tell me how to suggest leaving after dinner and how long do I stay. Also, what should I say to my hostess when I leave?

Answer: You stay an hour or an hour and a half after dinner is over. But it all depends upon whether conversation is very interesting or whether it drags. If it drags, leave sooner. When you are ready to leave, you stand up and say, "I've had such a pleasant evening; thank you so much for asking me."

Setting the Table

Dear Mrs. Post: I recently have been helping to set tables in our church dining room for suppers and banquets. I always put the napkin under the salad fork on the left side of the plate. I've been told by several people that the napkin belongs on the right side of the plate under the knife. Will you please tell me where it should correctly be placed?

Answer: Correctly, the napkin is put on the plate, unless there is food on it when the guests are seated. In this case, the napkins should be placed to the left of the forks—not under them. If the table is very crowded the napkin may be placed wherever there is space—to the left, right, or above the plate.

* * *

How long before the wedding should invitations be sent out? Details on the various forms and date of mailing are included in Mrs. Post's leaflet E-10, "Wedding Invitations and Announcements." Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Traffic Is Normal

Groveland Station, N. Y., April 4 (AP) — The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad reported traffic as normal today in a switching area temporarily tied up by a freight derailment yesterday at this Livingston county community. Eighteen cars of a 65-car Buffalo-New York freight piled up when a journal box on one of them broke. There were no injuries and main line was not affected.

Engineer Dead, 25

crews began working to clear the tracks blocked by the two accidents.

Probe Continues

A spokesman for the railroad said that the body of the engineer was extricated from the wreck shortly before 3 a. m. this morning and taken to a Hoboken morgue. He said officials of the railroad had conducted an on-the-spot investigation of the accident and would continue their investigation today.

Two of the passengers on the wrecked train were detained at Columbus Hospital and one in St. Vincent's Hospital, both in New York. Other passengers who claimed injuries were treated and released.

Many of the passengers in the train were knocked to the floor by the impact of the collision. They described the accident as a sudden "terrific crash."

"I was hurled against some object and knocked to the floor," said George Reid, a mechanical engineer of Nixon, N. J. "The train stopped and everybody was yelling. Some women were screaming," he said.

Reid, 25, was a passenger in the first car of the train and suffered a cut over his left eye.

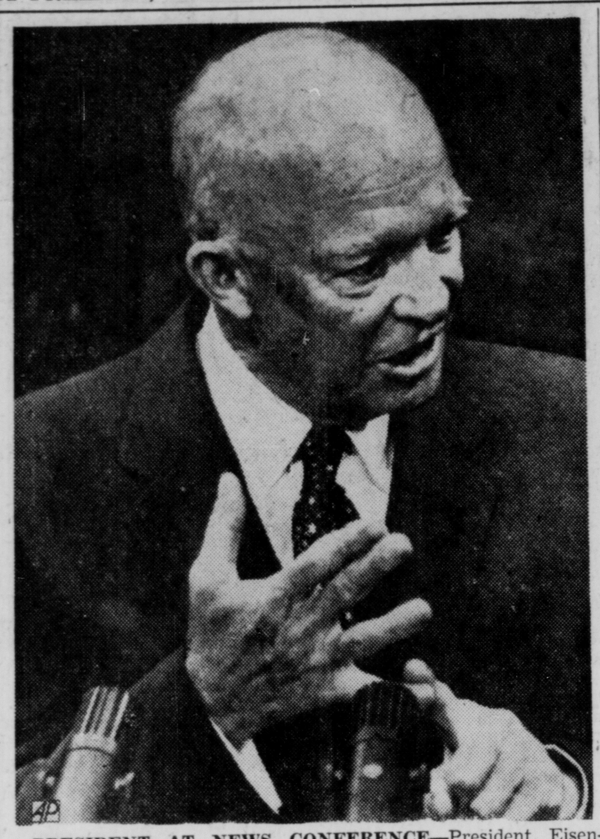

Census Will Give

They include New York city and all cities, towns and villages of the fast-growing counties of Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester.

The state pays per capita aid at the rate of $6.75 per inhabitant for cities; $3.35 for towns and $3 for villages. Payments now are based on the 1950 federal census.

A 1956 law authorizes local governments to contract for special censuses on which to base requests for additional per capita aid.

Increased payments based on the special censuses will begin April 1, 1958 and continue until the certification of the 1960 census. The certification is not expected until 1962.

Commentator Due For Envoy's Post In Switzerland

Bern, Switzerland, April 4 (AP) —Henry J. Taylor, writer and radio commentator, is scheduled to become U. S. Ambassador to Switzerland. Swiss officials said today they had notified the United States he is acceptable to this country.

Taylor is to succeed Miss Frances Willis, U. S. Ambassador in Bern since 1953, who is at present in the United States.

The officials said Swiss approval of Taylor's appointment was requested by U. S. Charge D'Affaires William Blue early in March and was formally given last Friday.

Rosendale's Lady

Main street was also discussed and a communication from the New York State Traffic Department advised the board that any ordinance would be subject to approval of the superintendent of public works.

The mayor invited all businessmen and others interested in one-way parking to attend a special meeting on April 11.

Other proposals by the mayor included continuation of flood control projects, work on the Main street parking situation to relieve congestion, and a study of the water system

Must Keep Creek Clear

Mayor O'Leary urged a strict enforcement of the law which prohibits dumping of garbage in Rondout creek. She noted that garbage collections are made on Monday an Friday and urged all residents not to be "litterbugs."

The board appointed George Herd assessor for one year; Anderson Ellsworth, registrar of vital statistics; John McKeon, auxiliary police justice, and Irving Smith Jr., building inspector.

Mayor O'Leary requested the village clerk's and treasurer's books be available for public inspection prior to regular meetings. It was voted to make these available to interested taxpayers one hour before a regular meeting.

Another Fire Bell

Permission was given Fire Chief Ray Temple to have another alarm bell installed in the village, in addition to the two bells presently in use. The possibility of raising the fire siren to a higher level to make it more audible at greater distance was also discussed and it was planned to determine the cost.

A budget hearing will be held Thursday, April 11 from 8 to 10 p. m. The parking problem will be discussed the same day from 7 to 8 p. m. in the town hall.

Mayor O'Leary proposed a registration of all eligible voters preceding an election "to avoid misunderstandings at or after elections."

To Build Kitchen

Permission to construct a temporary kitchen in the fire hall for the Ladies Auxiliary of the Rosendale Fire Department was given. The auxiliary of the American Legion requested use of the hall for Amistice Day to sell refreshments following the parade.

A request was made to have certain areas of the village streets cleaned following the sanding of roads during the winter.

Residents of Parkcrest Homes, Route 32, near Sportsmen's Park, asked the board to consider their proposal for a water system in that sector. The request was referred to the water board.

Alfano Commended

The board commended Water Commissioner Dominick Alfano for his efforts in keeping village streets clean. It was noted his job was handicapped by the fact that certain trucks traveled through the village without any canvas to cover loads of dirt or sideboards and the dirt was dropped on the streets.

Mayor O'Leary noted the street cleaning program is handled by Mr. Alfano on a voluntary basis. He is also custodian of the village dump, she noted.

Flood control prompted several suggestions and heated discussion but it was indicated that private individuals did not have control over the project since the work is being done by the Army Corps of Engineers.

$25 Million Will

Graduate Schools, to provide for an immediate increase of 100 Woodrow Wilson fellowships for the fall of 1957, a 50 per cent rise over the 200 awarded this spring.

The recruitment program will be conducted largely through a corps of 100 or more faculty members who will give about one-third of their time to stimulating faculty cooperation on about 1,000 college campuses. Their efforts will be coordinated by four or five regional field directors.

Nominations for the fellowships will be made by local faculty members. Selection of those winning fellowships will be by regional committees and a national committee, both to be composed of faculty members.

Fellowship recipients may choose their own schools and fields of study.

the club's theme song, "If You Knew Susie," which is sung at all club functions.

"We're not only delighted but we'll probably adopt Susan Myers as the club sweetheart," Mr. Tinney said.

Last night's attendance made a total of 4,000 persons who have visited the exposition since it opened Tuesday night with 114 booths—largest number sold in its 10-year history—and 69 exhibitors. More than 1,500 attended the exposition on Tuesday night.

The exposition will be open from 7 to 10:30 p. m. each night for the rest of the week.

Highlight of the exposition last night was the personal appearance of Freddie Freihofer, clever-handed cartoonist of WRGB, Schenectady, Mr. Tinney said.

Freihofer (Jim Fish) will also appear Saturday night, he said.

The popular television cartoonist attracted hundreds of youngsters, Mr. Tinney said. Freihofer lets the youngsters make scrawlings on his "squiggle" sheet, and then turns the lines into cartoon characters as he does on his TV show.

Tehran Abolishes Martial Law, On Since World War 2

Tehran, Iran, April 4 (AP) — Martial law was abolished in Tehran today. It had been in effect since World War 2.

Brig. Gen. Teimour Bakhtiar, military governor of Tehran, made the announcement shortly after Menouchehr Eghbal, Iran's new pro-western premier, presented his cabinet to the Shah.

Calls It Pleasure

"We have the pleasure to announce dissolution of martial law in Tehran and its suburbs after the uprooting of Communists and subversive elements," said Bakhtiar.

There was no word on the lifting of martial law in other areas of Iran. When Eghbal was offered the premiership on Monday, he accepted on condition that martial law be removed from "all parts of the country." He promised also to seek to raise the standard of living.

Order Repeated

The 49-year-old former university president was named by Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi to replace Hussein Ala. Ala, 74, resigned because he said a younger and stronger man was needed to deal with bandits like those who ambushed three Americans and two Iranians in the desert of southeastern Iran on March 24.

Eghbal said his first act as premier was to repeat Ala's orders to the police that they must capture the bandits who killed Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Carroll of Issaquah, Wash., and Brewster Wilson, of Portland, Ore. Carroll was an official of the U. S. Point Four program in Iran and Wilson represented the Near East Foundation.

The interior ministry has announced that loyal tribesmen armed by the government have slain Mrs. Carroll's killer. Today police announced the remainder of the gang is encircled on the desert at a point about 50 miles from the Pakistan border. Gen. Ali Goltira, police commander, declared he would resign, if he fails to capture bandit chief Dadshah and the others in his gang. More than 1,000 police and loyal tribesmen are in the encircling force.

Wolves at Door

McAlester, Okla. (AP) — The wolves really have been at the farmers doors in eastern Oklahoma. Government trapper Dub Fite has trapped 100 in four months.

The bison, or buffalo herd, had been killed off in Canada to about 300 in 1900. Strict patrols of game wardens to stop illegal hunters has brought the herd back to about 15,000.

An announcement said Liang would leave Taipei April 10 and return about May 1. Cite Religion's Role in Heritage For Loyalty Day

The religious significance and the role of religion in each step of the building of America was emphasized today in a thesis by the Rev. Alvin F. Messersmith, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of West Camp.

The VFW Loyalty Day Committee each week offers revelant remarks by area clergymen on the Loyalty Day theme in conjunction with the annual observance Saturday, May 4, sponsored by Saugerties Memorial Post 5034, VFW.

Another Birthday

"Loyalty Day! Memorial Day! Independence Day! As we approach the celebration of another birthday of the United States, under whose charitable government we live, and of which we are a part, it becomes us as a Christian people to keep in mind, first of all, its religious significance. The very existence of this nation is an important element of God's great world-plan, worked out, as all God's plans are, silently and gradually for a long time, through innumerable second causes, whose interaction often seems to indicate anything but cooperation. The progress made has always been under the unfailing hand of One who knows how to make even man's infirmity contributory to His far-reaching purposes.

"The expansive power of Christianity led to the discovery of America; and the resistless energy of a newly awakened faith, with its wider and deeper view of what Christianity means, prepared for this newly discovered land master-builders of a new form of government, who worked in separate groups independently and unconsciously of one another, each confined to his own small task, until the relation of part to part began to become apparent.

"Without some appreciation of this divine process, all history is nothing but a jumbo of confused facts, and American history becomes unintelligible. From the charter given Columbus, from the commission given by Queen Elizabeth to Sir Walter Raleigh, from the charter of Virginia granted by James I, from the compact made by the Pilgrims on the Mayflower, from the charter granted William Penn, down to the constitution of each one of the 48 states—Christianity belonged to the fundamental law of our land.

"Religious freedom had been an influential factor in attracting immigrants and undergirded the expansive spirit of America.

"Immediately after the Revolution, George Washington rewarded many of his officers with grants of land. By the land laws of 1800 a man could buy a plot of land on the frontier for $1.50 an acre—paying 50 cents down and the other dollar over a period of four years.

"During the presidencies of James Monroe, John Quincy Adams, and Andrew Jackson, the government moved most of the Indians to make room for more families in the middle west. By the Homestead Act of 1862, a man could acquire 160 acres of government land on the mere promise to live on it for five years (which was later reduced to three years and to cultivate it. This brought Europeans over by the thousands—80,000 going straight through the East to the West in a short time and forming the vanguard that opened the West.

"The stories of the hardships endured by these pioneers to secure a home they could call their own, on land that belonged to them, are among the most thrilling annals in American history. Some families packed all their belongings on one or two horses and crossed the mountains. Others floated down the Ohio river on rafts 80 and 90 feet long, loaded with everything. Thousands pushed across the prairies in covered wagons, stopping here and there to build.

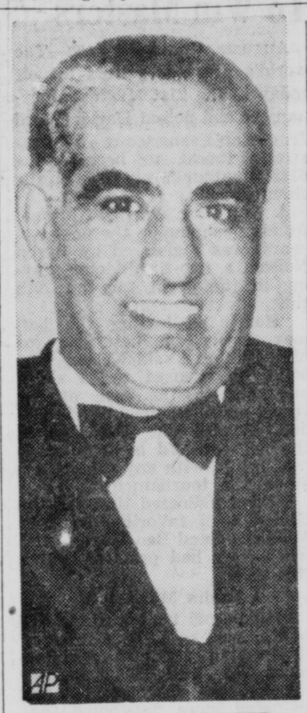

"These are the people who made America great in spite of the fact that many Easterners thought they were merely shiftless adventurers who wanted to go where they could do as they pleased. They moved from the populated East to the wide open spaces of the West, where they could plant their feet on their own soil and be free.

"We certainly have given the world proof that democracy works. Russia, one of the world's great powers, has been under complete dictatorship. England at the beginning of World War 2 decided not to have any elections-evidently afraid of an upheaval. We went right on with our old ship of state and plowed through one of the stormiest political campaigns in our history—a campaign in which no words were withheld and yet when it was all over, the defeated candidate called upon his fellow-Americans to share with him the prayer that Divine Providence would give strength and wisdom to the successful candidate. That is America.

"Let us thank God for the founding fathers, the builders of the Ship of State, and all who have in succeeding years helped to keep her afloat and sailing on. They planned much more wisely than they knew. Among them there was One, whose form they did not see, guiding and overruling their activity far better than they could ask or think. That we may be patriots as loyal to our country and as faithful to our church, as were our forefathers, should be our constant prayer; as well as the petition that our children's children for many generations should remember that 'to whom much is given, of him shall much be required.'"

Talks to Resume In Goodrich Strike

Cincinnati, April 4 (AP)—Close-mouthed bargaining representatives of the United Rubber Workers Union and the B. F. Goodrich Co., said they'd try again today to reach an agreement on a new contract and end a strike of about 14,000 rubber workers.

But that's about all they would say. Spokesmen for both the union and the company declined to say whether any progress was being made toward settlement of several issues involved in the dispute.

The strike started at midnight Sunday.

When asked about any progress in negotiations, one spokesman said, "I wouldn't call them negotiations, just meetings." He declined to amplify the statement.

Priest Sails Friday

Hong Kong, April 4 (AP)—The Rev. Fulgence Gross of Chicago, released a week ago by the Chinese Communists, is scheduled to sail from Shanghai for Hong Kong tomorrow. The U. S. consulate said the Roman Catholic missionary is due here Sunday aboard the British ship Glenorchy. Father Gross was freed March 28 after serving a six-year prison term. The Reds are still holding eight Americans, five of them under House arrest.

Injuries Are Fatal

AP Writer Given Memorial Award

New York, April 4 (AP)—The George Polk Memorial award for courageous journalism was presented to Associated Press correspondent Endre Marton yesterday, just three hours after his arrival in this country from Vienna.

Marton, who covered the Hungarian revolt of last October and its suppression by Russian military might, shared the award with his wife Ilona Nyilas, who worked for the United Press. Both spent many months in Hungarian Communist prisons on charges of espionage.

The Polk awards, given by Long Island University, honor the Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent who was murdered while on assignment in Greece in 1948.

In accepting the plaque, Marton, a Hungarian national, said: Don't forget my unhappy country. Keep the story of Hungary alive. As Hemingway said in his book on the Spanish Civil War, 'The bell tolls also for thee'."

Sickler's Delivery and Pine Plains Reach KBT Finals

IN PRO BASKETBALL SWAP—Mel Hutchins, left, of the Detroit Pistons, went to the New York Knickerbockers April 3 in exchange for Nat "Sweetwater" Clifton, center, and Harry Gallatin, right. The exchange was part of a five-player deal. Deal marked first transaction of Detroit professional basketball club which has just moved from Fort Wayne. (AP Wirephoto)

Champions Gain 88-86 Victory Over Stars; Plains Trounce Legion

A pair of "four-second" clutch shots by Frank Connelly, the 1956-57 Siena College captain, vaulted Sickler's Delivery into the finals of the Kingston Basketball Tournament with a thrilling 88-86 overtime victory over the Kingston Stars last night at the municipal auditorium.

Pine Plains Bombardiers, with a strong second half and 35 points from Ted Dwyer, bowled over the Staatsburg American Legion, 100-86, to reach Saturday night's payoff game.

An inspired Kingston Star squad which had literally played the Deliverymen off their feet suddenly collapsed with a 14-point lead midway in the fourth quarter.

Tied at 76-76

Connelly's set shot with four seconds remaining in the regulation game tied the score at 76-76, as the inspired Stars suffered an inexplicable collapse after leading by as much as 14 points in the fourth quarter. An all-court press by Sickler's and their own sudden ineptitude forced them to settle for the regulation tie. They led 63-56 going into the fourth quarter.

Connelly shattered an 86-86 deadlock with four seconds left in the overtime. That gave the Stars enough time for one more shot. They maneuvered downcourt and George Carpouzis took that last desperate chance that fell short of the basket. And that was the end of one of the most spectacular semi-finals the tournament has ever seen.

Carpouzis Hits 25

Carpouzis had paced the Stars with 25 points and Bud Smith rimmed 21. Ed Kolokowski, a strong MVP contender, paced the Deliverymen with 31 points and Frank Koenig made a solid contribution with 20 points.

It was touch and go in the first quarter which ended in a 20-20 stalemate. The Stars moved ahead 40-37 at the half and picked up four additional points in the third period.

Kolokowski and Carpouzis potted two baskets apiece in the overtime but it was Connelly's basket, of course, that wrote the story.

Dwyer Continues Spree

Dwyer, the Columbia University star who has been more than an ample substitute for Chet Forte, continued his scoring wizardy for the Pine Plains club. His 35 points last night boosted his tournament total to 123 for three games, a cool 41 average.

Gary Holoway, the Albany State Teachers scoring star who could grab the MVP crown, added 26 points and played another strong game under the boards for Manager George Stuetzle's outfit.

Jim Jennings scored 19 points for the Staatsburg club which trailed 27-12 at the half, rallied to within two points at the half (44-42) then was engulfed by Holoway's third-quarter spree of 20 points.

The Stars play Staatsburg in the consolation prelim at 7:15 p. m. Saturday. The championship finals are slated at 8:30.

Nelson Boosts Ward's Chances To Win Masters

Augusta, Ga., April 4 (AP)—The world's greatest golfers hit off today in the 21st Masters Tournament and poised Harvie Ward Jr. of San Francisco is an extra-strong threat to become the first amateur ever to win the championship.

A vote for Ward, National Amateur champion the past two years, was registered by Byron Nelson, a two-time victor playing in the event for the 20th time.

"Harvie is hitting the ball marvelously, the best ever for him, I think," said Nelson, who could be excused for a slight prejudice in the case of the young man he helped develop. "I don't say I'll take Ward against the field but I'd be inclined to match him with any other player in the tournament."

Neslon indicated that this included such favorites as Cary Middlecoff and Ben Hogan, with whom he's had practice rounds this week.

Faults Middlecoff

"Middlecoff isn't striking the ball as well as he usually does," the graying cattleman from Roanoke, Tex., said. "He is keeping his feet too close together and swinging more flat-footed than I've ever seen him.

"Hogan? Well, Ben is playing well, But he isn't playing well for Hogan."

Ward teamed with Nelson in a practice tour yesterday and shot his second straight 69, three under par, over the 6,980-yard Augusta National course.

"Harvie hasn't missed a shot this week that I've seen," Nelson added. "Every shot is on a string and his putting has been deadly. You can't ignore him."

Harvie himself, relaxed and confident, acknowledged that his game had hit a pleasing plane of par-and-birdie consistency.

"I have changed my approach to this tournament," he said. "I'm driving for the middle of the fairways and shooting for the fat part of the greens. I'm playing it safe and not gambling."

Trotters Beat All Stars, 54-35

Buffalo, April 4 (AP)—The Harlem Globetrotters-College All-Stars basketball series moved to Raleigh, N. C., today with the Trotters leading 3-1.

The Trotters, clowning through the final quarter, easily defeated the All-Stars, 54-35, before 8,308 fans in Memorial Auditorium here last night. The winners were in command by the middle of the second quarter with a lead of 28-13.

Hitting from the outside, Andy Johnson led the Trotters with 14 points. Hank Nowak of Canisius, playing in his home town, led the All-Stars for the third time, but all six of his points were from the foul line.

Playoffs Continue

Montreal, April 4 (AP)—Coach Toe Blake sends his Montreal Canadiens into the fifth game of their Stanley Cup semifinal tonight against New York's Rangers admittedly "feeling a lot better" but still touchy at any suggestion that his club is a shoo-in. For the Rangers it's win or pack up for the summer. They're down 3-1 in the best-of-seven series.

Three Groups Seek License To Operate Harness Track

New York, April 4 (AP)—State Harness Racing Commissioner George P. Monaghan today was studying three applications for a single available license to operate a parimutuel trotting track.

Bids were made yesterday by the Sullivan County Harness Racing Assn., and the Sullivan County Trotting Assn., both of which propose to build near Monticello, and Victoria Acres, which wants to operate a parimutuel track near Albany.

State law permits eight tracks. Seven presently are licensed.

Have Four Million

The Sullivan County Harness Racing Assn., composed principally of hotel owners of the resort area, said it would build a 4½-million-dollar track a mile from Monticello at the junction of Routes 17 and 17B.

The Sullivan County Trotting Assn. said it had not selected a site but planned a track with a capacity of 17,800.

Victoria Acres now operates matinee racing, without betting, at a site 12 miles west of Albany. That track said it was willing to spend two million dollars on renovations and proposed a plant to accommodate 12,500.

Monaghan did not indicate when a decision would be announced.

Aloys Keglers Lead Tourney

The Aloys team of the Academy League of Poughkeepsie is leading the New Paltz Huguenot Women's Bowling Tournament with a score of 2799. The tourney has one more weekend to run.

Esther Osborne, rolling in the number four slot, led the team's scoring with games of 163, 153 and 200 for a combined 516 effort.

Channel Master No. 2 of Rosendale is in second place with a 2734 mark. Strike Belles of Poughkeepsie are a close third with 2733. The Strike Belles posted the highest net team score of the match, 2373.

212 High Single

Ginny Doughty of Beacon fired the highest single score, 212. B. Johnson of Poughkeepsie rolled 569 for the top three game effort.

Daystrom Electric of Poughkeepsie holds down fourth place in the team scoring with 2716. Benson Five of Dover Plains with 2715 and New Paltz Savings Bank with 2708 are fifth and sixth respectively.

Reicks Jewelers of Poughkeepsie are seventh with 2704. Windsor Barber Shop of Poughkeepsie is in eighth place with 2700, Di Carlos Motors of Walden is ninth with 2692 and Dover Five of Dover Plains has a 2583 score in the tenth spot.

George Harmon-Bud Leininger and A. J. Oster-Ed McDevitt turned in double wins for the Caddies. Don Gallagher-Budd Rappleyea and Andy Plotzyk-Art Brown also scored doubles.

Pony League Picks Officers In Wawarsing

Reuben Benson was designated president of the Town of Wawarsing's Pony League at the organizational meeting in Ellenville.

Other officers named were: Louis Resnick, vice-president; Aaron Mermey, secretary; Frank Decker, treasurer; Vernon Kelder, player agent.

Harry Gorman and Abe Steinhoff were designated as trustees. Managers recommended by the officers were Donald Evans, Charles Pensa, William Sweeney and Baxter C. Constant.

Improvements on Field

The Pony League field which adjoins the Little League park was fertilized and seeded last fall and has also been re-seeded and fertilized this spring. It has already developed a fine turf.

Plans are in progress to enclose the field with a sign board fence and dugouts similar to the Little League park. It is expected that a large mechanical scoreboard will be erected in the centerfield part of the park.

Pony League will share with Little League newly erected rest room facilities through the sponsorship and help of the Ellenville Lions Club and another supply committee headed by Stanley Watt of Napanoch.

A financial drive by a committee of youth recreation enthusiasts will soon be launched by the president.

Kawolics' 726 Tops ABC Singles

Fort Worth, Tex., April 4 (AP) The defending team champions open play tonight in the American Bowling Congress tournament.

The Chicago Falstaffs, who took the title last year in Rochester, N. Y., challenge the Peter Hand Reserve Beer, another Chicago team, which holds division lead with 3126.

The line-up includes such famous bowling names as Buddy Bomar, Bill Lillard, Don Ellis, Bill Bunetta, Carl Richards and Stan Gifford.

A seasoned performer from Chicago shot into the singles lead in the highlight of yesterday's action. Ed Kawolics rolled a towering 3-game series of 726 to overtake another Windy City keeler, Dean Overholser, who had held first place with 708 since March 17.

Royals to Cincinnati

Knicks Trade Harry Gallatin And Clifton for Mel Hutchins

(By The Associated Press)

The National Basketball Assn., boning up for next season even before the current show is ended, had a new home base for one of its teams and new faces for two others today.

In rapid fire developments to fill the gap while awaiting the resumption of the championship playoffs, the Rochester Royals shifted their franchise from Rochester to Cincinnati and the Detroit (nee Fort Wayne) Pistons and New York Knickerbockers announced a five-player deal.

Boston and St. Louis, all square at 1-1 in their best of seven playoffs, resume play Saturday night at St. Louis.

Owners Les and Jack Harrison of the Royals said they left Rochester for Cincinnati in keeping with the "NBA trend toward bigger cities."

Gallatin Traded

The Pistons, who moved from Fort Wayne to Detroit effective with the end of this season, received Harry (The Horse) Gallatin, Nat (Sweetwater) Clifton and the rights to backcourt man Dick Atha from New York in exchange for former Brigham Young star Mel Hutchins and their first draft choice at the annual NBA meeting April 17.

Speculation in New York is that the Knicks will ask the Pistons to draft Hot Rod Hundley, West Virginia's colorful All-America, providing he is available when the Pistons' turn comes up.

Hutchins, an NBA star for six years, is 27 and considered one of the best rebounders and defensive players in the league. He scored 890 points for the Pistons this season.

Gallatin, 30, led New York in scoring with 1,079 points and in rebounds with 725. He is the NBA "iron man", having played in 666 consecutive games since joining the Knicks nine years ago. Clifton was a seven-year veteran of the Knicks, joining them after several years with the Harlem Globetrotters. He is 32.

Atha was on the New York roster two years ago but did not play this year and was on the club's reserve list.

Janeczek Rolls 544

Ronnie Janeczek, leadoff for the Herzog squad in the Friendship "B" League burst into the scoring spotlight with a 544 series last night at the Central Recreation.

The series, which might have been the highest of her young career, was built around games of 181, 164 and 199.

Ann Sinagra poster 472, Betty Sass 435, Vera Anderson 464, Virginia Cave 464, Rose Chamberland 434, Lillian Craig 401, Rita Roach 429, Hazel Stopher 459, Sis Balash 475, Shirley Terwilliger 422.

Paul Jackson Runs Second in Eastern Debut

Yonkers, April 4—Paul Jackson, 1956's winningest harness horse, made his Eastern debut at Yonkers Raceway last night and wound up second to Sister Song in the $8,100 Mount Kisco trot.

Sister Song, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Borrie of Old Brookville, N. Y., scored by a neck over the heavily played Paul Jackson under the guidance of Dick Thomas. Mister Key was third in the 12-horse field. Paul Jackson was driven by Eddie Cobb.

Paul Jackson chalked up 26 victories and five seconds in 31 starts last year for Jim Louiso of Fayetteville, Ohio, and Harley Fox of Lynchburg, Ohio. Most of his success was at Maywood, Ill., and in Ohio. Last night he raced for Arthur McConville of Ogdensburg, N. Y., who purchased the five-year old trotter in January for $20,000.

The midwest star broke stride at the start, but receovered and moved up fast in the stretch, But he was unable to catch Sister Song, who was timed in 2:06 2/5 and paid $35.60, $10 and $5.90.

Stanley Dancer drove three more winners. He now has eight winners for the first three nights of New York 's harness racing season.

His winners last night were Gallant Ensign $4.30 and Captain Kirk $5.60 in the first two races for a $10.80 daily double and Flying Pence $4.40 in the last race.

Zulueta Win Booed by Fans

Washington, April 4 (AP)—Orlando Zulueta, getting little zest from his latest victory, nonetheless declared himself ready today to take on Joe Brown for the world's lightweight title.

He captured a split decision last night from Joey Lopes of Sacramento, but was anything but devastating. The audience—1,287 paid—in Capitol Arena noisily booed the verdict.

Lopes banged away at Zulueta's midsection, twice drawing a warning from Referee Harry Volkman. But Zulueta swung the decision with spurts of sharp punching and defenses.

Volkman favored Zulueta 99-94 and Judge Beeny Alperstein, 96-95. Judge Charley Buck gave Lopes a 97-94 edge.

1957 NL Pennant Review

Dodgers, Braves Tie, 2-2, in 10 In 'Pneumonia Circuit' Game

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

It's an improbable itinerary, but what likely will be the best two-team fight for the National League pennant currently is holding one-day stands in Jacksonville, San Antonio, Houston, Fort Worth, Dallas, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Wichita and Kansas City.

That's the route—termed "The Pneumonia Circuit" by Brooklyn Dodger President Walter O'Malley—to be followed by the champion Brooks and the "we'll-do-it-this-time" Braves as they wind their way home to start the real thing.

They looked for real in Jacksonville yesterday, wrestling through 10 innings to a 2-all tie and leaving it that way to enable the Braves to hop a commercial airliner for San Antonio. The Dodgers use their private plane for such things.

Three Home Runs

Don Newcombe did the pitching for the Dodgers and was tagged for seven hits in his six frames — one a second-inning, and first-of-the-season, home run by Bobby Thomson, and another a fourth inning home run by Johnny Logan, who was 4-for-4.

Newk squared it at 1-all with a home run in the third and the Dodgers then made it 2-1 in their fourth on a Duke Snider single, a walk and Gino Cimoli's single. Cimoli's knock was the fourth and final Dodger hit off young Ray Crone, who went nine and then gave way to Corky Valentine's hitless 10th.

Newcombe struck out two and issued his first walk of the spring before Clem Labine came on to give two harmless singles and no walks over the last four.

In other games, the Detroit Tigers scored three in the 10th to beat the St. Louis Cardinals 8-5; a two-run homer by rookie Jim Landis brought the Chicago White Sox an 8-4 decision over the New York Yankees, and the Washington Senators used Cincinnati's prime weapon, the home run, to beat the Redlegs 4-3.

Haddix Wins Game

Philadelphia clipped Boston's Red Sox 3-1 on a three-run double by winning pitcher Harvey Haddix. Cleveland pushed across nine runs in the seventh to whack the New York Giants 13-6. Pittsburgh finally scored against Kansas City, beating the A's 2-0. And the Chicago Cubs ruined Mike Fornieles's full-route show by beating Baltimore 6-2.

Southpaw Jim Davis' knuckleball gave catcher Hobie Landrith all sorts of trouble, permitting the Tigers to score the tying run in the ninth on a passed ball. Another weird one got away in the winning 10th. Opened by Earl Torgeson's triple. Stan Musial homered and singled for the Cards for a .496 spring average.

Sturdivant Stopped

The White Sox junked Tom Studivant's string of 21 scoreless innings in the first frame, then wrapped up the Yanks with four in the third, capped by Landis' two-run blast. Jack Harshman went seven to win it.

Roy Sievers, Jim Lemon and Clint Courtney homered for the Senators with two out in the fourth against Cincy's Warren Hacker. The Redlegs had scored three in the first off Evelio Hernandez.

The Phils got to Frank Sullivan in the second with a pair of singles and a walk filling the bases for Haddix' drive to right-center.

Cleveland had just two hits and no runs in six innings against rookie Curt Barclay, then ganged up on Windy Mc Call and Max Surkont in the big seventh for the Tribe's sixth successive victory.

The Pirate, who went 18 innings to a scoreless tie with Kansas City Monday, had just four hits, two off Tom Morgan in eight frames. Frank Thomas's single broke it up in the seventh.

Gene Baker smacked his fourth home run in four days, this one with a man on base, as the Cubs bagged the Orioles with three in the fourth.

Forsts Blast 2857 In Fort Worth ABC

Forst's Formosts keglers of the Hudson Valley League slammed deep into the American Bowling Congress prize list with a solid 2875 at the Fort Worth, Texas, tenpin fiesta.

Jones Dairy totalled 2715 and Tony's Pizzeria had 2700, as all three Kingston entries crashed the jackpot and several individuals earned take-home pay.

Jerry topped the all-events with a nine-game total of 1818 with 591 in the team event; 596 doubles and 631 singles.

Oster also led the singles shooting with lines of 205, 193 and 233. Tom Carlino of Forsts cracked 621, Phil Versace of Tony's Pizzeria hit 620 and his teammate, Harold Broskie, fashioned 613 in the do-it-yourself department.

Best doubles score was the 1198 hung up by Charlie Manfro (598) and Versace (600). Oster and Jack Ferraro were the runnersup with 1168.

Whitey Crispell led the Forst assault with 604 on games of 178-189-236. Tom Carlino furnished 583, George Robinson 560, Buster Ferraro 588 and Larry Petersen 540. The Packers did it with team slams of 970-920-985.

Jones Dairy, led by Osters' 591, put together games of 871, 938 and 906 for 2715. Tony's had 876-920-904 for 2700 on the nose.

DEFENDER—Ray H. Jenkins, noted Knoxville, Tenn., attorney, will help defend Col. John Nickerson at the latter's court-martial. Jenkins served as special counsel in the 1954 Army-McCarthy hearings. Col. Nickerson, Army missile authority at Redstone Arsenal, is accused of unlawfully revealing classified defense documents and distributing secret documents to unauthorized persons.

Three-Mile Limit

Ignoring the generally accepted three-mile limit, four nations—Chile, Ecuador, Peru and El Salvador—now claim 200-mile priorities off their coasts where foreign fishermen cannot drop their nets.

The first United States coin on which the motto "In God We Trust" appeared was a two-cent piece in 1864.

DIED—Another of the great prewar world political figures has been felled. France's famed ex-Premier Edouard Herriot died at his home in Lyons, where he had been ill with bronchial trouble for two months. He was 84.

Drastic PO Cut Of Service Seen On Reduced Fund

Washington, April 4 (AP)—Postmaster General Summerfield said today there will have to be drastic curtailment of postal services if Congress gives his department only 17 million dollars of the 47 million extra it has asked for operations over the next three months.

The necessary cutbacks, he said, "will very seriously penalize the American people and the 508,000 employes of the Post Office Department."

$30 Million Cut

Summerfield called what he termed "an emergency press conference" to discuss the action by a House Appropriations Committee which cut his request to 17 million dollars.

He said he was confronted with the "most difficult decision any postmaster general has been called upon to make," naming it as the necessity to decide within 48 hours how the cuts can be applied.

Possible Cuts

Summerfield outlined these various possibilities:

An embargo on acceptance and delivery of all third class mail except merchandise, at a saving of 30 million dollars for the Post Office Department's final quarter of the fiscal year. Third class mail includes advertising matter, samples and catalogues.

Wipe out city carrier delivery on all kinds of mail on Saturday at a saving of 10 million dollars.

Close all post offices on Saturdays and stop rural mail deliveries on that day at a savings of 4 millions.

Halt money order sales at a saving of another 4 millions.

Reduce mail deliveries in city business districts from two or three and sometimes more a day to one a day at a 2 million dollar saving.

Six Prominent Breeds

The National Beef Council reports that the six most prominent breeds of cattle in the U. S. are, in order of their numbers: shorthorns, herefords, aberdeen angus, galloway, brahma and santa gertrudia.

3,000 Gallons an Hour

At a road speed of 60 m.p.h. approximately 3,000 gallons of water are circulated through the average automobile radiator each hour.

Winners Named Of Frigidaires

Winners of Frigidaires in a recent contest conducted by members of Ulster Provisioners Cooperative, Inc., were announced today by Harry C. Jump, president.

They are: John Alecca, Connelly, B & F Market; Anna Whalen, Port Ewen, Jump's Market, Port Ewen; Mrs. Anna Raskoskie, 140 Murray street, Abel's Market; Marie Miller, Allaben, Minasian's Market, 86 North Front street; Jack McPhail, 52 Ann street, Schechter's Market, 17 East Union street; Pat Cooper, 11 Mill street, Farber's Market, 42-44 Chambers street; Mrs. V. Steely, Jane street, Rosendale, Rossler's Market, and Alice Bock, Bond street, Mehm's Market, 350 Broadway.

Mr. Jump said the $3,500 promotion, conducted by the UPA stores from January to March 31, was "very successful." He said the UPA members "have and will continue to aim to give lower prices on popular brands of advertised quality grocery products."

Special promotions for customers on merchandise other than grocery products is planned from time to time, he said.

New York Hit By Spring Snow

New York, April 4 (AP)—A spring snowstorm struck New York today.

The weather bureau attributed it to the low pressure system that brought tornadoes to Texas and snow to states farther north.

The snowfall was sufficiently heavy to cover the ground in some areas, despite the fact that the temperature was a few degrees above freezing.

However, the weather bureau said the fall was not expected to become serious. It predicted snow and sleet, changing to rain later in the day. The rain is expected to continue tonight and tomorrow.

The 8 a. m. temperature in New York city was 38 degrees, compared with a record high of 78.9 on April 4, 1892, and record low of 21 degrees for the date in 1874.

Southern Tier Gets 6-Inch Snow

Buffalo, N. Y., April 4 (AP)—A spring storm blew off Lake Erie early today and spread up to six inches of wet snow across the southern tier counties of western New York.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said the storm would leave three to six inches of snow as it moved northward into Erie, Orleans, Genesee, Niagara and Wyoming counties.

The bureau said rain would follow this afternoon, gradually melting the snow.

Highways were reported slippery throughout the area but the storm caused only minor delays in airline schedules.

Shad Run Held Up By Cool Weather

Cool weather has been holding back the seasonal run of shad in the mid Hudson river area, to date, and fishermen along the Rondout creek in the Wilbur-Eddyville area have had sparse luck with smelt.

A few shad were reported caught in the river within the past several days between here and Highland, but fishermen in the Kingston Point area, with one or two exceptions have not found it worth while this week to drift out their nets.

William Brandt, of 119 Hunter street netted four shad Sunday in the vicinity of Esopus Light and was out again this morning, but few others have made a try in the area.

Louis Naccarato of 59 Lindsley avenue said he plans to go out on a drift next Sunday, and others are expected to make their first try of the season over the weekend.

First shad of the season were caught in the Kingston Point area last year on April 12 and 13.

Optimistic, He Says

New York, April 4 (AP) — Mediation efforts to settle the eight-day Hudson & Manhattan Railroad strike move to Washington, D. C., today. The walkout by five non-operating unions has shut down the Hudson tubes, forcing some 65,000 commuters between Manhattan and New Persey to seek alternate means of transportation. Thomas Harkins, assistant grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who is scheduled to attend the Washington sessions, said yesterday: "I'm optimistic and I think we can settle it."

NEW SENATOR—Ralph W. Yarborough smiles in Austin, Tex., April 3 after results in Texas' special Senate election indicated his victory. Yarborough, the junior senator from Texas, indicated he would stand with the Democratic party on organizational matters in the Senate. (AP Wirephoto)

Girl Choked to Death

Ottawa, April 4 (AP) — A 13-year-old girl choked to death yesterday when pinned by the neck in a window which apparently slipped closed as she tried to climb into her home. Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Cloutier found their daughter Mary Judith Ann hanging unconscious from a window at the rear of their home. She apparently was locked out and was trying to climb into the window from a ladder. The window was about six feet from the ground.
